HARVEST HOME

Coming This Fall!

Twelve regional meetings that we are calling "Spotlight on Southeastern" are being held in as many different regions as possible. Their purpose is to report to supporting churches and businessmen on the development of the college.

A second purpose is to raise one month's mortgage payment ($25,000) from each area. Some regions are doubling that goal while others are considering a smaller amount. The host directors are: Roger Pauley, Van Dale Hudson, Tag Kilgore, Earl Hendrix, Rudolph Outlaw, Doug King, James Pauley, Lester Horton, Phil Ange, Robert Helms, Nate Ange and Dann Patrick.

This fall the dates of September 16 - October 4 have been officially designated as "Harvest Home" at Southeastern. On successive days in chapel, each of the above directors will take the entire chapel hour to challenge the students and faculty presenting their special gift toward the mortgage payment.

Some of the directors are planning "chapel extravaganzas." It looks like an exciting time ahead for "Harvest Home."

Thank you men for helping Southeastern. We love you for it!

Thank You! LORENZA STOX

The students, faculty, alumni and board of Southeastern say "thank you" to Lorenza Stox for eight years of faithful service to the Lord.

Dr. Stox has accepted the pastorate of Parker's Chapel Free Will Baptist Church in nearby Greenville, North Carolina. He will continue to be involved with the ministry that he helped establish in 1983. Parker's Chapel has been a strong supporter of Southeastern and will continue to do so under Lorenza's leadership.

In addition, his wife Dolly will continue to provide valuable service to the college as she commutes each week to her teaching opportunities at the college.

Dr. Lorenza Stox

Thank you, Dr. Stox and Dolly, for investing your lives in the lives of your students. Dr. Stox, we will miss you.
