JUNE 1991

SOUTHEASTERN WANTS YOU!

Billy Bevan
President

By the time you receive this newsletter, Southeastern Free Will Baptist College will have completed her eighth year of operation. The Lord has been very good to us--to God be the glory, great things He hath done!

The Lord has sent us some of the finest students in the nation and a staff that is qualified, capable and committed to the task of caring for young people.

We are eagerly gearing up for our ninth year. We are expecting it to be one of our best years.

Our recruitment theme for this year is: Southeastern "Can Do" for you. Many prospective students have received information concerning Southeastern, packaged in a tin can with our special label attached. The contents of the can contains all the information needed for a student to begin their enrollment procedure with Southeastern.

We are working very hard to offer the best service available on a Christian college campus to your young people. It is our goal to "serve students best." It is our sincere belief that Southeastern "Can Do" for you!

Perhaps you know of a young person in your area that is still undecided as to where they will attend college. If you will call the college office at (919) 365-7711, and leave their address, I will be glad to send them a "Can Do" can of information. If you had rather send their address, you can do so by sending it to: PO Box 1700, Wendell, NC, 27591.

We have never claimed to have the only college. I will hasten to say, we have a very good college! If you are planning to prepare yourself for a full-time ministry in the work of God, or know of those who are, you will be hard-pressed to find a school that will do a better job in preparing you to minister in music, youth, a Christian school, the pastorate, missions or business. It is true, we do not have the capabilities to train doctors, lawyers, or nuclear physicists. But that was never our intent! It has been our intent from the beginning to train young men and women to labor in our local church ministries. That is still our commitment.

Our commitment to the practical, to the local church, to Christian schools, to missions, to the right kind of music, to respect for the pastor, to soul winning, and our philosophy behind that commitment, makes Southeastern Free Will Baptist College worthy of your consideration.

We are asking God to give us a record enrollment of new students. As of this date, we have more students registered for next year, than in previous years at the same time. However, we do not want to become complacent or satisfied. I still believe there are a number of students that need to attend Southeastern this fall!

Why not give us an opportunity to talk with you and share the information we have about Southeastern. I am convinced, and I believe you will be convinced, that Southeastern "Can Do" for you!

Have a great summer! I hope to meet many of you this fall as new students at Southeastern.

PATRIOTISM STILL ABOUNDS

Beautiful American and Christian flags were presented to Southeastern Free Will Baptist College by the New Bern, North Carolina Chapter of Woodmen of the World. Carey Willis is shown presenting the flags for this organization to President Billy Bevan.

EVANGELISM CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS

- ATTENDANCE - Many pastors came this year. Most services were full.
- REVIVAL PREACHING - Every speaker addressed the need of revival.
- GREAT MUSIC - The college choir released its newest recording "Sing My Soul."
- Altars were filled repeatedly with students, pastors and others seeking the Lord.
- First Church Raleigh did a good job as host church.
- Great response from the Cooperating Board to the pressing financial needs of the college.

MISSION NEWS

A Mission Major will be offered to students at Southeastern Free Will Baptist College this fall, 1991. Dr. Joe Haas, chairman of the mission department, humbly thanks the Lord Jesus Christ for His leadership in answering our prayers. Our college prays for young men and women to "catch the vision" from the Word of God and hear the "cries" of over half the world that has never once heard the good news of salvation!

Raymond Rivers, a graduating senior from Southeastern, heard the "cries" from Spanish people and he plans to be a summer missionary and work with missionary Lonnie Sparks in Spain. Please pray for him as he departs on June 3rd and returns around August 12th. Raymond will be one of fifteen college age students taking part in the summer missionary program which is under the guidelines of the Free Will Baptist Foreign Missions Department.

CRISIS AVERTED

On April 1, three months' worth of bond payments were due at the tune of over $92,000! The fact that there was only $5,000 in the Bond Redemption account translated into a crisis of monumental proportions.

The crisis situation was explained fully to the Cooperating Board which was meeting during the Spring Conference on Revival and Soul Winning. The Board responded with a commitment of over $25,000 in just a few minutes! That evening a similar plea was given those who attended the conference and they responded with pledges amounting to approximately $8,000.

Within the next two weeks we received close to $40,000 from our friends. Also, First Free Will Baptist of Raleigh paid an entire month's payment which they had pledged for the summer. With a $25,000 short term loan we were able to make the payment!

A special thanks goes out to all who helped. If you made a pledge and have not been able to send it in please do so. If you can help us pay this loan this summer please send your donations to the college and mark it "Land Fund".

CHOIR TOUR 1991

It has been said that music is the language of the soul. Indeed, most everyone enjoys good music; thus, it is a point of common agreement that can be used very advantageously to spread the Good New of Jesus Christ in a manner that is both pleasing and powerful.

Recognizing this, the Music Department of Southeastern Free Will Baptist College sends its choir on tour each spring to minister to souls - both saved and lost - in song. Each song was specifically chosen because of the message that it portrayed. As would be expected, in learning the songs and in discussing the meaning of each, the choir member's own hearts were stirred as the songs spoke to them. As the choir members allowed the songs to search their own hearts, they were able to sing from their souls, and to seek for opportunities to help others in all of the services and in the homes. As a result, people were saved in the services and choir members were also able to pray with several people in homes for salvation and for rededication.

Thus, Choir Tour 1991 was much more than an enjoyable series of musical concerts; it was a revival kindled through song.

GET ACQUAINTED DAYS

During our recent Get Acquainted Days, April 11-13, there were 99 prospective students and 24 sponsors. It proved to be one of the best events held on campus this year including skits performed by the societies (which were hilarious) and a good old fashioned hay ride. A number of prospective students who attended signed up for the fall semester.

Southeastern will be observing its fall Get Acquainted Days, October 31-November 2. Youth workers, begin planning now to bring your young people. It could be the most important meeting they ever will attend.

NEW TAPES

Southeastern is pleased to announce the availability of two new tapes. The new choir tape titled "Sing My Soul" was released in March and has been very well received. In fact, more than 1000 copies have been sold already. The new tape combines songs that we have known since childhood, with several newer selections that are sure to be a blessing.

"When is the quartet going to make a tape?" That question has been asked often. Well, it will not be long. The new quartet tape will be released sometime in June. This tape will feature songs with a southern Gospel flavor. Tunes like "The Greatest of All Miracles", "In My Robe of White", "God Himself The Lamb", as well as others, will cause the foot to pat, the heart to swell and the soul to praise our great God.

Both tapes are available through the college office for $10 each.

FUN RUN '91

Whew! Whose idea was this anyway? For those of us who were out of shape, the FUN RUN '91 was not a picnic - but we made it!

A special 'Thank You' goes out to all those who so graciously sponsored each of us as we ran. In fact, we had over 330 sponsors who gave over $5,000 dollars. That is a tremendous average of more than $15.00 per sponsor!

We really appreciate your help - and so do the students - especially when they walked away from the business office with their prize money in their hands!

Congratulations
