OUR BEST KEPT SECRET

MISSIONS CONFERENCE SET

President Bevan has said, "The fall Missions Conference is Southeastern's best kept secret." Now that the secret is out, we invite you to our ninth annual Missions Conference, November 10-12.

Missions Director

Our theme, "I Will Go In The Strength Of The Lord God," will be developed by four outstanding preachers. Rev. Steve Lytle, missionary to Panama, will challenge our hearts for foreign missions. Rev. Fred Jones and a Mexican quartet will thrill us with what God is doing in Mexico. Dr. Michael Cox, pastor and director of the Michigan School of Missions, will challenge all of our pastors to build a strong missionary church. Rev. Randall Sawyer, one of our professors, will share Southeastern's missionary burden with you.

Please make your plans to be with us.

MISSIONS RETREAT

"Let Go and Let God" will be the theme for Southeastern's second annual Missions Retreat, October 4-6. The rolling hills in Southwest Virginia is the place chosen for the retreat called "Camp Jacob."

Missionary, Dave Franks, Jr., will be our featured speaker. Bill and Laura Jewell will share their experiences from France and Fred and Beverly McCracken will again join us with their missions input.

Dave Franks, Jr.

The college ensemble will provide our special music.

Dr. Joe Haas, Sr., director of our Missions Department, believes this weekend with God will reap eternal values!

A SPECIAL THANKS TO BRO. GUY OWENS

We regret having to say goodbye to Bro. Guy Owens after five years of faithful service to us - 2½ as a professor of Bible and Homiletics and 2½ as the Director of our Promotional Department. In an effort to balance our present budget, it became necessary to make a cut in personnel, thus, resulting in letting Bro. Owens go.

Bro. Guy Owens

Bro. Owens is to be commended for his untiring efforts in what is often a thankless and difficult job.

We offer a special thanks to his dear wife, Marie, and to his son Brian, for sharing their husband and father with us almost every weekend and Wednesday night for the past several years. We thank "you" for the sacrifice you have made. Only people who have those who travel can really appreciate and understand how much you have really given.

And to Bro. Guy, we salute you for your labor of love among us, and for a job well done. Thank you for your sacrifice of time and family. We owe a very special thanks to you and your family for your ministry among us.

Bro. Owens is currently available to conduct revival meetings, but hopes to return to his first love, the pastorate, as the Lord leads. You can reach him by calling (919) 365-9450.

AND THERE SHALL BE LIGHT.....

With the recent addition of lights for the tennis and basketball courts, Southeastern students will now be able to get a few minutes of exercise in the evenings if they so desire. Although one company gave a bid of almost $11,000, the college was able to complete the project for less than a fifth of that amount.

Special thanks to Joe Vernelson of Parker's Chapel FWB Church for donating the light poles and to Dr. Mike Paramore, Michael Fulcher and Kevin Wright for their assistance on the project.

ROLLING OUT THE RED CARPET OCTOBER 31-NOVEMBER 2

Please mark October 31-November 2 on your schedule. It's the time we are "rolling out the red carpet" to welcome prospective students and their sponsors to our campus for Get Acquainted Days.

We have lots of fun planned for everyone, but we especially want to challenge young people to follow the will of God. Many of our present students came to past Get Acquainted Days. The Lord used those times to help direct them.

Our students are among the finest anywhere. Their enthusiasm is contagious. Their spirituality is genuine. Our college program is sound and thorough. May we share this with your young people at Get Acquainted Days this year?

Because of space, we ask that only sophomores through seniors stay on campus.

Summer from a Student's Perspective

Traveling with a Southeastern singing group allows a wonderful opportunity for our students. They are able to minister for the Lord, view the Free Will Baptist denomination first-hand, meet new people and visit new places. Read the words of quartet member, Phil Smith:

"Throughout this past summer, we saw souls saved, young people dedicate themselves to God's service and people of all ages renew their relationship with the Lord.

"Not only was the trip spiritually refreshing, but we visited places such as Pensacola, Florida, Baton Rouge, Louisiana, Lexington, Kentucky, the coast of southern Maine and Canada.

"It's such a thrill to realize that God chooses us and works through us to draw others to Him."

Thank You...

...a van was donated to the college by the First Free Will Baptist church of Bedford, VA. Their pastor is Bro. Bill Steele, a member of the Board of Directors and a long time friend of the college.

Pastor Bill Steele gives the keys to President Bevan

...a piano was donated by the good folks from the recently disbanded Prospect Free Will Baptist Mission of Havelock, NC. Bro. James Pittman was the pastor.

...a very dear friend of the college recently set up a "Preacher Boy's" Scholarship. Each semester, as the Lord provides, a "Preacher Boy" will be selected on the basis of need and character to be awarded a $1000.00 scholarship for his tuition. This semester the recipient was Junior, Christian Powell of First Free Will Baptist Church, Raleigh NC.
