1996 Spring Conference April 22-24 Old Fashioned Camp Meeting Services

Please mark your calendars now for the upcoming spring conference at Southeastern Free Will Baptist College. We are praying, planning, and anticipating our greatest conference ever! The dates are April 22-24, 1996. Our meeting begins on Monday morning at 9:30 and ends on Wednesday at noon.

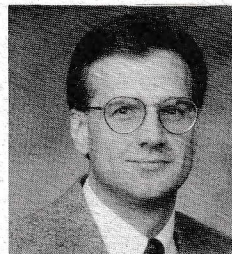

The Free Will Baptists I know and have been a part of all my life love good preaching and singing. Our conference is planned with precisely these two things in mind. This is not a 'How to Do It' conference. But rather, it is an old fashioned preaching conference. Our purpose is to challenge and inspire. I believe you will be 'stirred' when you attend this year's conference. Once again, our meeting will be held under the 'big tent' on our college campus.

Here is this year's line-up of speakers:

Bro. Claudie Hames, the long time pastor of the First FWB Church of Bakersfield, CA, will preach for us two times. Bro. Hames has been at his church for 31 years. The church has a large bus ministry and a Christian school with grades K5-

12. Bro. Hames has served on the National Home Missions Board and for the past 12 years his church has averaged 600 in Sunday School.

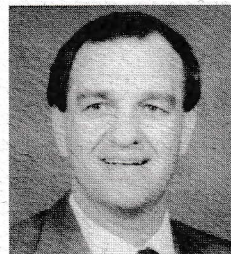

Another newcomer to our program will be Bro. Tim Hall, pastor of the First FWB Church of Owensboro, KY. Bro. Tim is the state moderator for Kentucky Free Will Baptists, a good pastor, and has been a friend to us. We look forward to hearing him preach.

Returning to our program for the second time will be Bro. Roger Duncan, pastor of the First FWB Church of Seffner, FL.

Bro. Roger has been at this church for almost 20 years. He has built a multi-ministry church and has a Christian school with an enrollment of over 530 students. Bro. Duncan also conducts a week-long Camp Meeting each year in January with attendance going over 1,000.

Finishing this year's program will be the following men who will preach one time: Bro. Nate Ange, pastor of Landmark FWB Church of Cary, NC. He is our part-time professor in the area of homiletics; Bro. Dann Patrick, pastor of Faith FWB Church and Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors of Southeastern; Bro. Karl Sexton, graduate of Southeastern and the newly called pastor of Gateway FWB Church in Virginia Beach, VA; and Bro. Billy Bevan, president of Southeastern and pastor of Hilltop FWB Church of Fuquay-Varina, NC. On Wednesday morning we will also have three of our preacher-boys to preach ten minutes each!

On Monday evening, the Greene's from Boone, NC, will be with us at 7:00 to sing. On Tuesday evening, the college choir, 'Sounds of Victory,' will present their annual choir concert.

I am extending a warm welcome to each of you to come and join us for a special time of 'old fashioned, camp meeting style preaching and singing.' Don't miss this meeting. It will be worth your effort and time to come!

Bro. Billy Bevan

PARKER'S CHAPEL - A GIVING CHURCH

Sunday, December 5, was Southeastern Day at Parker's Chapel FWB Church in Greenville, NC. The Sounds of Victory Choir presented a program of music and Promotional Director Jack Lassiter preached during the morning worship service. The Sounds of Praise Ensemble presented the musical drama Bridge of Blood during the evening service.

Pastor Lorenza Stox always challenges the congregation to give generously to the college on this special day. They graciously responded and with the special offering, checkbooks, matching gifts and budgeted giving, Parker's Chapel will give approximately $82,000 during this year to Southeastern.

COLLEGE CAMPUS GLOWS!!

Tuesday evening, November 28, arrived with much anticipation on the campus of Southeastern FWB College. It was to be the first Lighting of the Campus for the Christmas holidays. Christmas decorations could be seen everywhere on campus and the setting for the service was the gazebo which was adorned with a beautiful frazier fur Christmas tree. The Southeastern Choir, under the direction of Mr. Mark Going, presented a program of holiday and sacred music. The program ended with a sing-a-long and then all the campus was lighted. Following the program, guests and students enjoyed spiced tea, hot chocolate and cookies in the Bob Berry Center. Approximately 250 people attended. Our thanks to the many people who have donated lights for this event. We look forward with excitement to this yearly occasion.

SOUTHEASTERN RECEIVES $25,000 DONATION

Mr. & Mrs. Bob Groff from Kinston, NC, recently visited the campus of Southeastern and presented President Bevan with a check for $25,000. Mr. Groff had recently attended a church where the Southeastern choir was singing. In presenting the check, he stated that he was moved by the spirited singing and the fervent preaching. His desire is to help preserve this type of worship service for future generations. Mr. & Mrs. Groff have a grandson, Yogi Barwick, who is a freshman at Southeastern.

FUND RAISER NETS $2455

The ladies of First FWB Church in Chester, SC, have a fund raiser each fall. This past fall, at the suggestion of their pastor, Rev. James Sanders, the proceeds were designated for Southeastern FWB College. In December, they presented Southeastern with a check for $2,455. Our thanks to Pastor Sanders and the ladies of the church.
