PREACH, PREACHER, PREACH!

Nothing will ever take the place of preaching in God's plan. There are no substitutes for soul-hot, spirit-anointed, Bible preaching! Paul tells us in I Cor. 1:21b "...it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe." Then he issues a charge concerning preaching in II Timothy 4:2, "Preach the Word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrines." Just as the plan of salvation is made crystal clear in the Word of God, so is the importance of preaching.

If there is to be a turning back to God in our individual lives, churches, and denomination, pulpits will play a major part in seeing that this happens.

What has happened in our pulpits? The old Devil is shrewd. He knows he's not going to get us to deny the Word of God! No, sir! We believe the Bible!

Do we? Do we preach like we used to preach or have we conveniently omitted certain subjects becoming strangely quiet on unpopular topics? You don't always judge a person by what he says; you can tell a lot about a preacher by what he doesn't say!

I am sure I will be misunderstood by some but I'm not talking about being crude, rude, and cross. I think a preacher should be gentlemanly in the pulpit and not intentionally offensive. However, Jesus' remarks to the Scribes and Pharisees in Matt. 23 came to them as a stinging rebuke! We have become so concerned about "how" we say things that sometimes "what" we are saying loses its impact.

If God calls a man to preach, I believe he should want to preach and have a desire to do the best job possible by preparing through study and prayer. After this is accomplished, our "message" will be as dry as reading a newspaper editorial unless we are spirit-anointed.

It is my desire that God will raise up from Southeastern and other colleges an army of young preachers who are more interested in being powerful preachers than they are popular preachers.

Preacher, when is the last time you ruffled some feathers? How is it that we can go week after week in our Free Will Baptist churches with worldly, materialistic, unspiritual members warming our pews and nothing happens? I believe if you preach the Word of God with the anointing of God, something will happen. Some may get mad and some glad, but the preaching of the Word of God is a powerful force when God's approval and unction is on it.

I don't believe that John the Baptist would make our preaching programs at our Quarterly, State, and National Meetings. Somehow, he just doesn't fit the mold. His diet, dress, doctrine, and delivery would not set well with the ecclesiastical hierarchy. But say what you will, first and foremost, John was a preacher! We should be the kind of preacher John was--unafraid, unashamed, and under the Spirit's control!

May God help all of us to get back to old-fashioned, spirit-anointed preaching and to preach only to please Him. Preach, Preacher, Preach!!

President Billy Bevan

P.S. I want to invite every pastor to come and bring a carload of people to our spring conference. I believe you will hear the kind of preaching I have written about. I'll be looking for you.

The Church Alive

We are thrilled to introduce our newest recording, "The Church Alive", featuring the Southeastern College Choir directed by Mr. David Rhodes! Our last choir tape, "To Him Be Glory", has been our best seller yet and we know that this new effort will be well received and a blessing to all.

This new tape features a variety of wonderful songs - from fast and lively to soft and soul stirring to grand and powerfull. There are some fresh arrangements of some old favorites such as "I Need You" which is a beautiful arrangement of "Standin' In The Need of Prayer." There are also a couple of less familiar "oldies" that will get your mouth a hummin' and your foot a tappin'. We've even included the piano duo of "Goodbye World, Goodbye" that Mrs. Terri Siebert and Mr. Kevin Skiles played on choir tour. Also, we know you will be touched by the challenging strains of the popular ensemble number "When I Speak His Name" as well as the title cut, "The Church Alive" written and arranged by our producer, Marty Funderburk.

The tapes will be available in April and you can order yours today. The cost is $10 each for tapes and $15 each for CD's. Just drop us a line at the college with your check and we will mail you the tape as soon as we receive them. If you are able, please add $1 for each item to cover shipping costs.
