"DO YOU HAVE A MISSIONARY HEART?"

A missionary wrote the following: A great "without" is written on heathenism. Men and women are "without" a Bible, "without" a Saviour, and "without" righteousness. They have homes "without" peace, marriage "without" sanctity, little children "without" purity, and mothers "without" wisdom or self control. There is poverty "without" relief, sickness "without" skill or care, sorrow "without" sympathy, sin "without" a remedy, and death "without" hope.

All of this is wrapped up in the words, "without Christ." This is why Christ told us to go into all the world and preach the Gospel. This is why missionaries and pastors urge you to give and pray "without" restrictions; for the only answer to the ones "without" is to have Christ "within!"

A man consumed with the reality of missions and people dying without a Gospel witness said this:

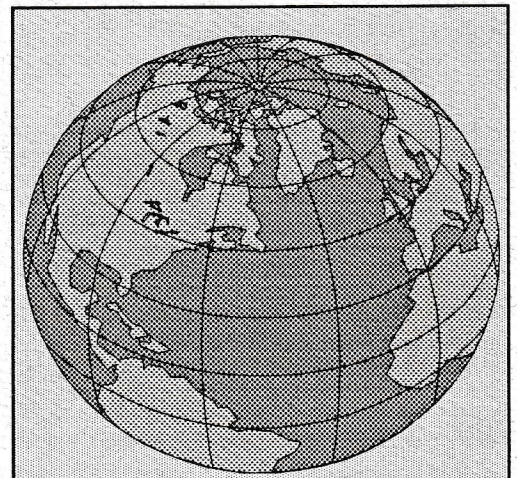

"What are churches for but to make missionaries? What is education for but to train them? What is commerce for but to carry them? What is money for but to send them? What is life itself for but to fulfill the purpose of missions—the enthroning of Jesus Christ in the hearts of men?"

Do you have a heart for missions? How can we have a heart for missions? How can we be more conscious of our responsibility to be missionaries and mission-minded?

As you study the scriptures, you find that there is really no distinction between "foreign" missions and "home" missions. Wherever there is a redeemed believer, there is a missionary!

A boy told his pastor of his ambition to be a missionary someday. "Are you saved?" asked the pastor. "Yes," said the boy. "Then you are a missionary NOW!" the pastor replied.

Each of us must realize that the field is the world and wherever you or I live, after we are saved, we are missionaries. Don't expect God to make you a missionary somewhere else, unless you are a missionary for Him where you are. We must be missionaries now!

How can we increase our "heart" for missions? Jesus is our example, and He gives us in Matthew 9:35-38 three ways to increase our heart for missions:

- A. We Must See What Jesus Sees—CONCERN
- B. We Must Feel What Jesus Feels—COMPASSION
- C. We Must Say What Jesus Says—CONTACT

There are millions of people outside the walls of our churches, homes and colleges who are lost without Christ. To reach them, we must see what Jesus sees; we must feel what Jesus feels; and we must say what Jesus said. Do you have a missionary heart? Better yet, are you a missionary where you are?

As William Carey meditated upon the verse, "Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature," he asked, "Lord, do you mean William Carey?" The Lord seemed to say, "Yes, I mean William Carey." Then Carey submissively said, "Lord, I respond. I will go and preach the Gospel." Carey told his friends, "I will go down into the well, if you will hold the ropes." Let us be faithful to stand with our missionaries and "hold the ropes." And may God help each of us to have a true missionary heart.

ENROLLMENT UP 20%

Southeastern announces a great start to the fall semester. It all began with a three day campus revival with Pastor Tim York from Heritage Temple in Ashland, KY, providing some "old time" preaching. The altars were filled after each service with young people seeking God's direction. Several surrendered their lives for full-time Christian service.

128 students from 16 different states were enrolled. This represents a 20% increase over last year and a 40% increase over two years ago. One of the most exciting things to happen is that approximately 40 young men are "preachers."

Statistics are as follows:

Full-time students	116
Part-time students	12
On Campus students	92
Men	47
Women	45
Off Campus students	36
New Students	62
Transfer Students	11

"Friends of Southeastern" Gather for Banquet at National

Wednesday, July 19, friends of Southeastern Free Will Baptist College gathered in Ballroom A at the Charlotte Convention Center for a meeting which proved to be one of the "highlights" of the National Association.

Following a delicious meal, a capacity crowd of 500+ enjoyed a musical presentation by the Sounds of Praise Ensemble. Southeastern graduates Brian Williams and Don Bailey gave testimony as to how the Lord had spoken to their hearts and prepared them for full-time Christian service through the ministry of Southeastern.

President Billy Bevan brought a stirring message entitled, "Don't Let It Die." He challenged us to not depart from the landmarks of our faith, but to hold fast to the distinctives of holy living, soul-winning and a strong local church emphasis. It was a message truly needed for such a time as this.

MISSIONARY CONFERENCE

OCTOBER 19-20

One of the highlights of our fall semester is our annual Missionary Conference. "Let the Light of Christ Shine Unto Them" has been chosen as the theme for this fall. Challenging us for missions will be Carlie Lloyd, Bob Edmonson, Fred Warner and Ron and Linda Moore. Another highlight of the conference will be the music provided by our music department. Our students are already praying for this conference and are open to the will of God for their lives. It is our prayer and desire that God will direct many of them to the regions beyond. The needs have never been greater than today to send missionaries into all the world.

We believe that this is a meeting that you should make every effort to attend. Why not mark your calendar right now....October 19-20....come and be blessed and challenged.

WOW!! SUMMER SCHOOL IN FRANCE...

Dr. & Mrs. Haas escorted thirteen of our students to the city of Reenes, France, for a three week stay this past summer. The group had summer school class each morning and in the afternoon they shared the gospel by giving out tracts and working with the church in community gospel outreach. The students were privileged to stay in the homes of some of the Christians that are members of the Free Will Baptist Church. The lives of our students were definitely challenged as they had the privilege of being a part of family worship in their host homes and also seeing the dedication of these dear people. It was a great trip. The church in Reenes was blessed by our students and our students were blessed by the church. Everyone gave testimony of a positive experience.

Following are some reflections on the trip by individuals who went:

"Our trip to France was a life-changing experience. We were exposed to a totally different world, language, and way of life. We saw the most spectacular sights, ate some of the world's best food, met some special people, and spread the Saviour's love to a pagan society through our literature. Our hearts were encouraged to see the love in the hearts of the believers there, reminding us that Christ's love and salvation has no limits or barriers. Yet our hearts were broken for the majority of the people were bound by custom and tradition, ignorant of their spiritual deficit and so much in need of the gospel message."

Andrew Moore, NC

"The very thing I feared most ended up being the most special part of the trip—staying in the home of a French family. It was amazing to see how two different cultures could come together and draw so close so quickly, all because of the bond of Christ.

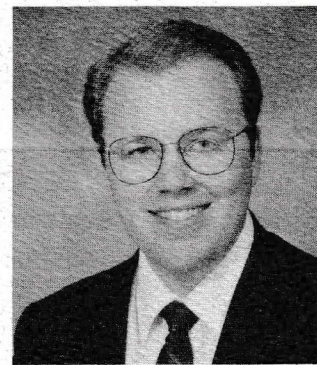

Kevin Skiles, NC

"The people at the church were very kind and ready to help us in anyway that they could. The first week I stayed with a family who couldn't speak English and I learned how hard it is not to be able to say what you want or to convey your feelings in words. I then stayed with a French lady who knew English well. She and her friends taught me a great deal about time—that is how much we, as Americans, waste. It was difficult to deal with not being able to share the Gospel with so many lost people."

SPOTLIGHT ON ALUMNI

Michael Giles is a 1986 graduate of Southeastern College. While visiting Colorado in the summer of 1990 to conduct a children's crusade, God began to move in his heart about the need for more Free Will Baptist Churches in the west. Five years later Michael and his family moved to Grand Junction, Colorado, to help home missionary Bob Lewis start a Free Will Baptist Church. They assist with the music department and Michael directs the children's church.

Michael plans to graduate from Colorado Christian University in 1996 with a Masters of Education Degree. He is currently substituting for the Mesa County School District.
