TENTH ANNUAL MISSIONARY CONFERENCE

November 9-10

At Southeastern Free Will Baptist College, we do not feel that missions can be over emphasized. Each fall we sponsor a missionary conference to give our students the opportunity to see the needs of the world and to give God a chance to direct their lives toward the regions beyond. We are excited about this year's conference and have chosen for our theme "Witnesses of the Light" taken from John 1:7, "The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through Him might believe."

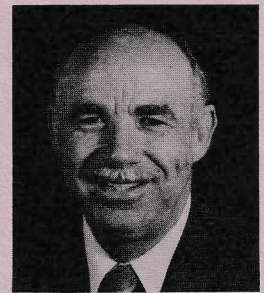

Norman Richards

We believe that God has directed in choosing our speakers for this important conference. Rev. Norman Richards, missionary to Ivory Coast, Africa, will be challenging our hearts with the needs of the world to hear the Gospel. Rev. Randy

Randy Stone

Stone, North Carolina home missionary, will be stirring our hearts for the needs of America. Rev. Dean Dobbs, pastor of Pleasant Acres Free Will Baptist Church in New Bern, North Carolina, will share his burden as a pastor and Dr.

Joe Haas, Sr.

Joe R. Haas, Sr., chairman of the Missions Department at Southeastern, will be asking each of us to get involved in world missions. Great music is being planned by our Music Department. Our theme chorus was written by some of our students and our special groups are preparing to bless your hearts with good singing.

Dean Dobbs

We invite you to come and be challenged to get more involved in the missionary program of your church. Will you join us in prayer that many will respond to God's direction to be witnesses to those who are still waiting to hear.

New Faculty Member

Southeastern is glad to welcome to the faculty Miss Frances Zimmer from Peoria, IL. Frances graduated from Bob Jones University in May with a B.S. degree in accounting and recently passed her CPA exam.

She is teaching Business Law, Economics and Accounting in our Business Department.

Special Thanks

Faith Free Will Baptist Church, Goldsboro, NC, recently donated six new loveseats to Southeastern to be used in our student lounge. Our students are really enjoying them.

Rev. Harold Critcher recently donated some books to our college library.

Mr. Marvin Williams organized a "work day" on the landscaping at the college, September 26. Everything is really looking nice. Thanks to all those who helped!

October 19-23 will be Missions Week on campus with Rev. Norman McFall, missionary to Brazil, speaking in classes and preaching in chapel.

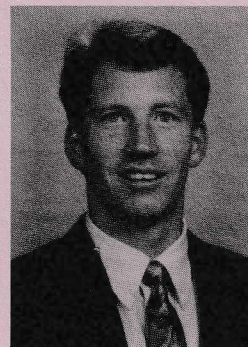

Spotlight on Alumni

Rhonda Radford graduated from Southeastern in May of 1987 with a Bachelor of Christian Education Degree. She began teaching at Raleigh Christian Academy, Raleigh, NC in the fall of the same year. She has taught second, first and fourth grades and is presently serving as Aftercare Director as well as teaching. Her church ministries include Patch the Pirate and junior church.

Kris Corbett is a 1988 graduate of Southeastern with a Bachelor Degree in Bible and Pastoral Theology. After graduation, Kris spent a year as a missionary in France. Since 1990, he has been serving as Youth Pastor of the West Duplin Free Will Baptist Church in Warsaw, NC, as well as Principal of their Christian school.

Get Acquainted Days

We are greatly anticipating the fall Get Acquainted Days, November 19-21. Pastors and Youth Leaders--please plan to bring your 10-12 grade young people. We can promise a lot of fun, but most importantly, a pointed, spiritual challenge about following the will of God.

Hope to see you here, November 19-21!!

College Ensemble Visits Mexico

One of the highlights of the summer tour by the college ensemble was a week spent in Mexico. Early arrangements were made with missionaries Fred and Barbara Jones for the group to minister in the Tampico area using the Bible Institute as a base.

The Mexican people were very gracious and wonderful hosts. The ensemble ate at the churches, sang and fellowshiped for many hours. There were five people saved during the week. Many of the young people from the churches came to the institute to visit with us and play soccer.

While we hope we were a blessing to them, they certainly were to us! Their music was great! Their young people were friendly and loving. What a great testimony for Christ and the faithful Mexican pastors there!

It was good to return to the United States again with our lives immeasurably enriched and our hearts burdened for Mexico.

NEW STUDENTS SHARE THEIR REASONS FOR ENROLLING AT SOUTHEASTERN

"I came to Southeastern after much prayer and thought. I have always enjoyed music and I feel that Southeastern offers an excellent music education program which is what I am majoring in. It is extremely important for Christian young people to be in the right environment when making important decisions concerning life. Southeastern is that place. I believe that by coming to Southeastern, the Lord will be able to use me totally for His honor and glory.

One other important reason for my attendance is the fact that this college is Free Will Baptist. We share the same Biblical doctrine that I have been taught at home and church."

Jamie Turnbough, Garner, NC

"For the past two years I have been undecided about exactly how I could serve the Lord. After attending three years of college prior to this year, I know what I don't want to do with my life. I know now that I am in the center of His will by being here at Southeastern."

Pam Still, Pearl, MS
