

The

Southeastern Standard

"I will . . . set up my standard to the people." Isaiah 49:22

FROM THE PRESIDENT

It was an atmosphere of great excitement on the campus of Southeastern Free Will Baptist College. Young people from sixteen states and one foreign country were arriving on campus from all directions. Some were returning to Southeastern to continue their Christian education. Others were transferring from other colleges to further prepare in some phase of Christian ministry. Seventy new students joined the upper classmen to begin their thrilling venture in preparing in a thoroughly Christian college for a lifetime of service for our Lord.

One had to be present to feel the atmosphere that pervaded the campus. Greeting old classmates, meeting new ones, exchanging pleasantries and all kinds of exciting, summertime experiences, expressions of anticipation and joy for the privilege of being on a Christian campus such as Southeastern — all these and more sent a wave of joy and thanksgiving through the souls of all of us. We marveled as we saw God at work.

Then there was the moving into dorms and apartments and the settling down for all the opening day activities. These services would mark the beginning of Southeastern's third academic year. It was a deeply satisfying beginning.

There was great preaching by Dr. Joe Ange, President of Southeastern. A great message was preached on Tuesday evening by Rev. Larry Stevens, pastor of Parker's Chapel Free Will Baptist Church in Greenville, NC. Our final guest speaker, Rev. Willie Justice, brought the Tuesday evening message. The response to all the messages and spirit-filled singing led by Rev. Randy Sawyer, indicated that God had launched our third year in a wonderful spirit of revival. That spirit continues to prevail now that classroom work, homework, tests, working part-time and the daily routine are in full swing.

God has sent us 170 precious young people from Texas to Michigan and from South Carolina to West Virginia and from far away Nigeria. They come from sixteen states with five states leading in enrollment. North Carolina led with 55. Close behind North Carolina was Virginia with 50. Then followed South Carolina with 22, Tennessee with 14 and Alabama with 10. They also came from Indiana, Kansas, Maryland, Michigan, Mississippi, Missouri, New York, Ohio, Rhode Island, Texas and West Virginia.

There are 100 men registered and 70 women. 108 live on campus while 62 live off campus.

God is already doing great things though our fine faculty and these wonderful young men and women. We are seeing God write history (His-story) every day here at Southeastern.

I want to thank all of the parents, pastors, youth workers and faithful laymen who helped in one way or another to direct your precious children to this college. We pledge again to do our best to be worthy of this trust and such wonderful opportunities that are afforded us in the training of your sons and daughters.

Pray for all of us at Southeastern and plan to come and visit us at any time.

EQUIPPING FOR SERVICE

Southeastern Free Will Baptist College exists for the purpose of training and equipping young people for the work unto which they have been called. In order to achieve this purpose, a standard of excellence has been erected in the total program of the school, academically, spiritually and practically. Believing that both the heart and the mind must be developed if a young person is to be fully prepared to face the challenges of today's world, Southeastern has sought to make available the best in classroom instruction and christian service for the training of each young person enrolled.

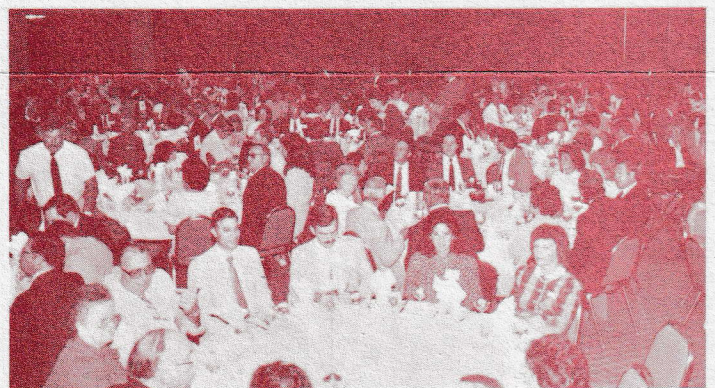

With an eye on the local church and the world-wide extension of the gospel, Southeastern offers majors in Bible, teacher education and pastoral training and minors in music and missions, along with the above mentioned majors. In our instruction, we are seeking to impart the highest level of excellence that we possibly can. And yet we do not want to lose touch with the real world in which we minister. Application to the daily lives of students, coupled with an intense desire to impart the truth of God's Word is the key to maintaining this standard of excellence. In so doing, we believe that we can send forth laborers into the harvest of God, fully equipped to accomplish His will.

OVER 500 ATTEND SOUTHEASTERN BANQUET

On Wednesday night, July 24, 1985, during the National Association, Southeastern sponsored a "Friends of Southeastern" banquet. There were over 500 in attendance at the meeting. Hearts were touched and moved as the college ensemble sang and students shared testimonies of the blessings of God on their lives.

The highlight of the evening was the inauguration of the new president of Southeastern, Dr. Joseph G. Ange. Dr. H. Randolph Cox, former president, presented the investiture sharing with everyone the leadership of the Holy Spirit in directing Dr. Ange to this new position. A plaque and words of commendation were given to Dr. Cox for the excellent leadership he had given the college during the first two years of operation.

HONORARY DOCTORATES RECEIVED

Dr. Tom Malone, pastor of Emmanuel Baptist Church and founder and president of Midwestern Baptist College, Pontiac, Michigan, was special guest at the "Friends of Southeastern" banquet. He presented honorary Doctorate degrees from Midwestern Baptist College to Rev. Dale Burden, pastor of Gateway Free Will Baptist Church, Virginia Beach, Virginia; Dr. Richard Cordell, pastor of Guin Free Will Baptist Church, Guin, Alabama; and Rev. Lorenza Stox, dean, Southeastern Free Will Baptist College. Congratulations, brethren.
