The highlight of the year on the campus of Southeastern is the Conference on Evangelism and Soul Winning. This year's conference will be March 31 - April 3, 1985.

Rev. A. B. Brown, professor at Southeastern, will deliver the first message on Sunday night at 6:30 p.m. followed by Pastor Burden. Services during the day will begin at 9:00 a.m., and those attending will hear Dr. Tom Malone, Trymon Messer, Rev. Johnny Pike, Rev. Richard Cordell and Rev. Archie Ratliff. Workshop speakers for Tuesday afternoon include Mrs. Jane Burden, Brian Peters, and Rev. Mark Thomas. Ray and Ann Gibbs will be our featured singers throughout the conference.

With the powerful preaching of God's Word from some of His best servants, the testimonies from those whose lives have been changed by His grace, and the singing from the hearts of those who love and serve Him, it should be our best conference ever.

We are planning for well over 1,000 in services. Plan now to attend. If you need a place to stay, let us know. A number of homes will be available from the church family. Available motels are listed in this issue of UPDATE.

GET ACQUAINTED DAYS, March 29-31, 1985

The value of young people attending Christian college campuses to get a glimpse of college life is rarely disputed. This is the time many seniors decide to attend college. Such is the case at Southeastern. Following are testimonies from some of our students who decided to attend Southeastern because of our "Get Acquainted Days";

"Get Acquainted Days influenced me to really nail down some things in my own life and to have the desire to win others to Christ. To see over 300 go out soul winning on Saturday morning was also very different for me." Derek Ketner, NC

"The atmosphere spiritually was fantastic. The zeal that the students had in serving the Lord made me desire what they were experiencing." Tracy Enyeart, IN

"The atmosphere was that of being serious for the Lord. When I came, I was weak in the Lord. After I left, I was stronger. In fact, I rededicated my life." Kris Wisely, NC

"Upon my entrance on the campus, many of the college students were, instead of playing basketball, going on visitation. Another influence was that the students were not just studying but were working toward a goal of service for Jesus Christ." Jim Fairchild, IN

"I had my mind set on attending another Bible college. My preacher encouraged me to attend Get Acquainted Days. After a bit of confusion and encouragement from another student, I decided where the Lord really wanted me." Lisa Wells, VA.
