THE TIMOTHY PROGRAM FOR SUMMER INTERNS

It is our desire at Southeastern to equip each ministerial student with as much practical training as possible before he graduates and enters a local church ministry of his own. The "Timothy Program" is designed for pastors to aid in that training for ten weeks during the summer months. Sophomores, juniors, and seniors are encouraged to take the opportunities offered them to work closely with a pastor during that time to learn some of the "ins and outs" of a local church ministry. He gets to feel the heartbeat of a man of God who leads his church in ministering to the saints and in soul winning.

There are requirements that the student must satisfy in order to earn credit for the course, but even these requirements are designed to blend with his work in the church during the ten weeks. For example, each intern must witness to at least ten people each week while there. Pastors can use the intern to aid in any number of ways. For instance, he can work with teens, in youth camp, the bus ministry, canvassing an area, the junior church, etc. In this way the intern learns things that cannot be learned anywhere but "on the job." Pastors can lend their influence and expertise to the development of a young man and his future ministry which will be largely shaped by such experiences. Perhaps the greatest benefit is seen in the example set by the intern of a young man sold out for Christ and in the souls led to the Lord during those ten weeks.

These reasons and more make the "Timothy Program" potentially our greatest learning method at Southeastern. Why not prayerfully consider using one of our young preachers this summer in your church? Then call the college for further details.

PASTOR JAMES PAULEY COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Commencement exercises at Southeastern will be Thursday, May 9, at 10:00 a.m., in the auditorium of Gateway Free Will Baptist Church. Rev. James Pauley, pastor of Faith Free Will Baptist Church in Kannapolis, North Carolina, will be the commencement speaker. Pastor Pauley is a 1969 graduate of Free Will Baptist Bible College and has pastored Faith Church in Kannapolis for the past fourteen years.

Three young men will be awarded degrees during this historic time in the development of Southeastern Free Will Baptist College. Sandy Bozeman and Steven Webb, two of the graduates, are from Guin Free Will Baptist Church in Guin, Alabama. Michael Sager, the third graduate, is a member of Gateway Free Will Baptist Church in Virginia Beach, Virginia.

Pray with us that these men will leave our campus determined to do God's will and to leave some footprints in the sands of time to the glory and honor of God.

THE COOPERATING BOARD OF SOUTHEASTERN

In the formation of Southeastern Free Will Baptist College, its founders wanted to keep its roots solidly in the local church and allow supporting pastors and their congregations to have a voice in the policy-making process of the college as well as the approval of the budget. So far, this type of organizational structure has proven to be very healthy.

There are now eighty men on our Cooperating Board. Many of these men will be meeting at the annual session of the board at the upcoming Evangelism and Soul Winning Conference March 31 - April 3. The Cooperating Board will meet on Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 p.m.

Every board member is encouraged to attend this important meeting and share in the discussion of business items which are pertinent to the college as well as approving the budget for the 1985-86 school year.

To become a member of this board, the pastor needs to obtain a "Statement of Philosophy and Cooperation." After reading the statement, he must sign it and by doing so, pledge his support in prayers, finances, students, and general promotion. New members are recommended by the Board of Directors and voted upon by the entire Cooperating Board.

If you are a pastor and interested in joining our Cooperating Board, simply write to the college office for a copy of the Statement of Philosophy and Cooperation.
