BASIC NECESSITIES ONLY OR ENLIGHTENING STUDENTS & BUILDING BUILDINGS, TOO!

Thomas Edison, inventor, once said, "Colleges should not have to choose between lighting their buildings and enlightening their students."

Colleges all across our nation are being hurt by inflation. More and more of the money that used to be spent for proper equipment, expanded programs to meet the needs of our young people, qualified personnel to train young minds, adequate libraries, etc., are being consumed on the basic necessities such as heating, lighting, food and maintenance. This is true in secular colleges but the Christian colleges are the hardest hit of all.

What is more alarming is that this is coming at a time in American history and Free Will Baptist history when we need all of the trained Christian soldiers that we can get.

The future of Christian colleges is being threatened by a deluge of false opinions that we have little or no needs that are not being met by tuition and other student fees. Nothing could be further from the truth.

Here at Southeastern, we must raise $28 for each $72 that we receive from the students. This $28 out of every $100 must come from pastors, friends of Southeastern and our supporting churches. The cost in meeting the bare necessities (not buying land and building buildings) is $1,950 per day. This is $13,650 per week and about $59,000 per month.

The gift portion of the above costs is $16,000 per month. This means that we must raise more than $4,000 per week from churches and individuals just to keep the college operating on the current level. This does not include any funds for campus development.

Every year with few exceptions, Christian colleges are finding it more difficult to raise money from churches and individuals. In order to keep tuition costs and other fees down, we must have greater regular support from God's people or "price out" worthy students through higher tuition.

Here at Southeastern, we have some of God's choicest servants to train. They are worthy of your support.

Where Southeastern goes in the future will be determined by several important factors. We must have prayer support. Please continue to send us your students. Earnestly consider stronger financial support.

Will we be able soon to employ the additional personnel (we need four now) to carry the load of current programs and new programs to meet the needs of our students? Will we be able to add thousands of volumes to our library? Will we be able to get the needed equipment such as teaching aids, computers, typewriters, pianos, etc., to do a better job of training?

The answer to these questions and many more lies with you, God's people, our friends.

Pray about it! Act now! It is your college. It would take a gift of $640 to sustain Southeastern Free Will Baptist College eight hours. What about the future? The future of Southeastern is as bright as the promises of God and the faithful consistent support of our churches, pastors and friends.

FIFTH ANNUAL CONFERENCE ON EVANGELISM AND SOUL WINNING

During the week of April 5th-8th, 1987, Southeastern Free Will Baptist College will host its fifth annual conference on Evangelism and Soul Winning. Marked by outstanding preaching in past years, the conference places a strong emphasis on revival and soul winning. Special music, a fervent spirit and warm fellowship have characterized these meetings each year.

The men who will be delivering the messages this year include Dr. Joe Ange, Dr. Dale Burden, Dr. Wally Beebe, Rev. Jack Cox, Rev. Billy Bevan, Rev. Bob King and Rev. Randy Sawyer.

Dr. Beebe, known as "Mr. Bus" across America, pastored churches in Georgia and Illinois. He also pastored First Baptist Church of Ruskin, Florida for almost eight years. For many years, he was associate pastor of Trinity Baptist Church in Jacksonville, Florida, where Dr. Bob Gray is the pastor. The bus ministry at Thomas Road Baptist Church in Lynchburg, Virginia was started and directed by Dr. Beebe. He led the bus ministry at the First Baptist Church in Hammond, Indiana to be the largest in the nation during his ministry there. In addition to speaking, he will deliver his famous bus lecture on Tuesday afternoon of the conference.

Dr. Ange pastored two of our largest churches for twenty-one years. In each church, they grew to an average attendance of more than 700. On high days, the Central Church in Royal Oak, Michigan and the Liberty Church in Durham, North Carolina passed the 1000 mark in attendance. Dr. Ange has also conducted more than 550 revivals. For ten years, Dr. Ange was Director of Religious Activities at Free Will Baptist Bible College. Since July of 1985, he has been President of Southeastern Free Will Baptist College.

Dr. Dale Burden has been pastor of the Gateway Church for more than twenty-one years. For many years, he served on the Sunday School Board of the National Association of Free Will Baptists. He was editor of the Adult Sunday School Quarterly for more than fifteen years. The Gateway Church averages about 1400 in Sunday School with souls being saved regularly through the various ministries of the church.

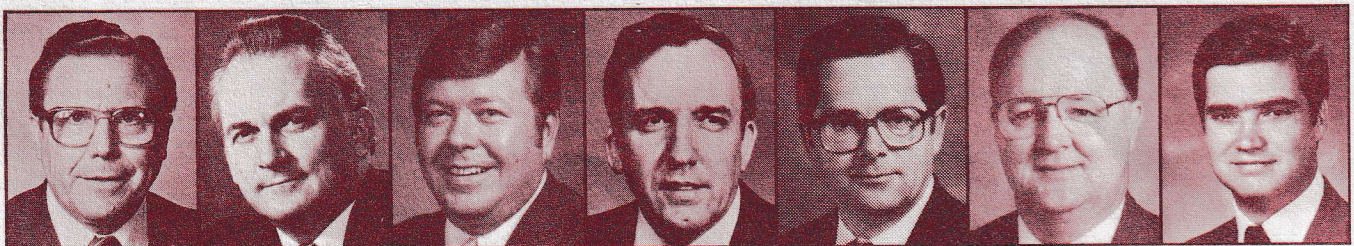

Rev. Jack Cox pastors the Liberty Free Will Baptist Church in Durham, North Carolina. He pastored in Erwin, Tennessee for five years and Mt. Calvary in Hookerton, North Carolina for nine years. Brother Cox has led each church into an impressive, soul winning ministry.

Rev. Billy Bevan has led the Hilltop Free Will Baptist Church, Fuquay, North Carolina into an aggressive soul winning church and has built a strong Christian school program. He has also pastored in Blakely, Georgia and Tupelo, Mississippi where he led the church to an average attendance of over 400.

Rev. Bob King has now pastored the Cramerton Free Will Baptist Church, Cramerton, North Carolina for the past eleven years and has seen outstanding growth in the church through their soul winning efforts and the addition of a bus ministry. Brother King began a Christian school several years ago and it has grown to one of the largest in the Free Will Baptist denomination. Before moving to Cramerton, he had pastored in Florida, Missouri, Tennessee and South Carolina.

Rev. Randy Sawyer serves as Chairman of the Music Department at Southeastern and preaches for the college as a representative of the Promotional Department. Before moving to Virginia Beach, he pastored the West Duplin Free Will Baptist Church, Warsaw, North Carolina. The church experienced unusual growth under his leadership. He also served as assistant pastor in Mississippi and North Carolina.

The conference last year approached the 1000 mark in attendance. Pastors, staff members, church delegations and families are encouraged to attend what could very well be a milestone in their ministries and lives. For further information concerning details, call the college at (804) 473-1100.

THE TIMOTHY PROGRAM FOR SUMMER INTERNS

It is our desire at Southeastern to equip each ministerial student with as much practical training as possible before he graduates and enters a local church ministry of his own. The "Timothy Program" is designed for pastors to aid in that training for ten weeks during the summer months. Juniors, seniors and specially approved sophomores are encouraged to take the opportunities offered them to work closely with a pastor. Here they will learn the "ins and outs" of a local church ministry and feel the heartbeat of a man of God who leads his church in ministering to the saints and in soul winning.

The requirements that the student must satisfy in order to earn credit for the course are designed to blend with his work in the church during the ten weeks. For example, each intern must witness to at least ten people each week while there. Pastors can use the intern to aid in any number of ways. For instance, he can work with teens, in youth camp, the bus ministry, canvassing an area, the junior church, supply preach, etc. In this way, the intern learns things that cannot be learned anywhere but "on the job." Pastors lend their influence and expertise to the development of a young man and his future ministry which will be largely shaped by such experiences. Perhaps the greatest benefit is seen in the example set by the intern of a young man sold out for Christ and in the souls led to the Lord during those ten weeks.

These reasons and more make the "Timothy Program" potentially our greatest learning method at Southeastern. Why not prayerfully consider using one of our young preachers this summer in your church? Then call or write to the college for further details. Address your inquiry to: Rev. Danny Dwyer, Director, Timothy Internship Program, Southeastern Free Will Baptist College, P.O. Box 61599, Virginia Beach, VA 23462.

GET ACQUAINTED DAYS APRIL 16-18

April 16-18 are the dates we have set aside this semester for high school sophomores, juniors, seniors and graduates to visit the campus of Southeastern and get a first hand view of college life on the campus of a Christian college.

Young people today are faced with a number of important decisions. Their response to these decisions in many cases will determine their success or failure in their service to God.

TIP-OFF TOURNAMENT A SUCCESS

The 1986 Southeastern "Tip-Off" Tournament began on December 4 with Raleigh Christian from Raleigh, NC, defeating defending champion Collinswood from Portsmouth, VA. The tournament concluded on Saturday, December 6, with Faith Christian from Goldsboro, NC, defeating Mt. Calvary from Hookerton, NC, for the championship.

This year's tournament had good competition and good fellowship. Also competing on the tournament this year were: West Duplin (Warsaw, NC), Liberty (Durham, NC), Bethany (Norfolk, VA), and Gateway (Virginia Beach, VA).

While the competition was intense, the participants exhibited good Christian testimony with Raleigh Christian receiving the Christian Testimony Award.

Chris Edwards of Faith headed up the All-Tournament being selected as the tournament's most valuable player. Joining Chris on the All-Tournament Team were: Mark Stallings (Collinswood), Johnny Taylor (West Duplin), Paul Smith (Raleigh), Kevin Dail (Liberty), Donnie Burke and Wayne Nixon (Gateway), Kevin Stox and Mike Davis (Mt. Calvary), and Warren Riley (Faith).

Any school interested in playing in next year's tournament should contact Southeastern as soon as possible.

A great number of young people have been directed by God to Southeastern. He has revealed to many of them His direct will for their lives. It is such a joy watching these "leaders of tomorrow" grow up in a Christian college setting.

Let me encourage every pastor and youth leader to bring your young people to this important event on our campus. It could be a life changing experience for them. It has been for many.

SOUTHEASTERN REACHES TO THE LOST

The faculty and students of Southeastern Free Will Baptist College touched the lives of more than 10,000 people during the fall semester. Over 2,000 of these were given the plan of salvation. More than 100 of them accepted Christ as personal Saviour. Upwards of 50 made their decision public in our churches.

Our students served in children's church, Sunday School, on the military bases, tract distribution, youth work, music directors, associate pastorates, pastorates and many others.

Continue to pray for the Christian Service Department of Southeastern that many more shall be saved.

SPRING ENROLLMENT

The spring semester at Southeastern is well underway now. All of us are rejoicing because of the eager spirit of our students and faculty. A spirit of revival is prevailing in our chapel services and elsewhere. God is meeting the needs and solving the problems of our students. At the present, we are approaching a spring enrollment of 160. This is wonderful since this means that we will have gained 18 new students. This means also that our net loss from the fall enrollment to spring enrollment is minimal. God is giving us a good semester.
