LOOKING BACK AT CAMP MEETING '96

Camp Meeting '96, like our previous Soul Winning Conferences provided the benefits of warm fellowship, stirring music and dynamic preaching. The college choir concert on Tuesday evening, under the direction of Mr. Mark Going, was excellent. Their final number "I Pledge Allegiance" was especially powerful, and the congregation spontaneously rose to its feet as an overt declaration of allegiance to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. The music program also featured the "Greene's" from Asheville on Monday evening and Billy Fields from Indiana. We certainly were blessed by the wonderful music during this year's conference.

Preaching is the focal point of these conferences, and the preaching in this year's conference was simply outstanding! Our special guest preachers included Rev. Claudie Hames, CA, and Rev. Tim Hall, KY. On Tuesday morning, Bro. Hall powerfully proclaimed the inspiration and infallibility of the precious Word of God, and Brother Hames challenged our hearts with Scripture and personal experiences regarding the Christian responsibility of soul winning. Both men were a tremendous blessing, and we look forward to having them with us again.

We were also privileged again this year to have Rev. Roger Duncan, FL, to preach for us. Folks still talk about his message on "The Sacrificial Lamb" from last year's conference, but this year's message on "The Heavenly Porter" will not soon be forgotten. What a tremendous blessing were the spiritual truths regarding the ministry of the Holy Spirit in the life of a believer!

Several preachers who spoke at Camp Meeting '96 are closely associated with the college. Board Member Dann Patrick reminded Southeastern students in a straightforward manner of the purpose for the college's existence and purpose for their attendance. On Tuesday, Rev. Nate Ange, who not only pastors Landmark FWB (Cary, NC) but also helps the college by teaching homiletics, shared with the audience the admonition he gives to his homiletics students: "speak the truth of the Word of God; speak the truth in understandable language; speak the truth with compassion." When he preached his message on the "Power of God," the audience realized how mightily God speaks through a man who indeed "practices what he preaches." We thank him for his ministry to the "Southeastern preacher boys" and for his message at the conference. Also on Tuesday morning, alumni Karl Sexton (Pastor of Gateway FWB, Virginia Beach, VA) preached from the book of Revelation and fervently warned us of the curse of ministries seeking to function without having "Christ in the midst." On Wednesday morning, four "preacher boys" were given the opportunity to preach—but with one interesting stipulation—a ten minute time limit! In spite of this restriction, the young men did an outstanding job. Thanks to Leonard Bowers (TN), Frank Rice(WV), Greg Floars (NC), and John Williams (NC) for their messages.

Special recognition goes to the president of Southeastern. Under the tent on Tuesday evening, Bro. Bevan preached up a storm! Rain began pouring down on the outside, and the wind threatened to relocate the tent! It is almost ironic that as he was preaching on "The Fire of God" under the tent, the external elements threatened to dampen the "fire." Nonetheless, Bro. Bevan preached on, and the "fire" did not go out!

Although the preaching covered a variety of topics, every message was pointed and powerful. Thanks to all of you who supported this year's conference with your attendance, prayers and finances. Special thanks to the folks from Seffner, FL, who came on their travel bus to be with us. We praise God for His blessings, and we rejoice in the many decisions that were made.

SOUTHEASTERN STUDENTS AND FACULTY TO SERVE ON MISSION FIELDS THIS SUMMER

A missionary passion for the whited fields of harvest fills the campus of Southeastern FWB College. This campus-wide burden reveals itself not only through weekly Missionary Prayer Band but now through nine students and two faculty members who will serve Christ on mission fields this summer.

Working through the summer mission's internship program of the National Foreign Missions Board, Andrew Moore will serve in Brazil with Tom and Nancy Hughes; Andrea Woodfin will work with Stan and Brenda Bunch in Panama; and Kristie Bell will serve in Japan under Dale and Sandra Bishop.

Missy Gilbert, Tracy Clinger, Elizabeth Johnson, Chip Henley, Shawn Minyard, and Tony Dean will work at a summer youth camp in Moldova, one of the smallest C.I.S. countries of Eastern Europe. This missionary endeavor will work through Local Church Missions, a missionary arm of Tabernacle FWB Church in Kinston, NC, where Rev. Johnny Pike pastors.

Also working through Local Church Missions, two Southeastern faculty members will travel to Romania and Moldova to preach in local churches and to teach area pastors and pastoral students. Rev. A. B. Brown, Academic Dean, will teach in the areas of Greek and theology. Dr. Bruce Barnes, professor of Bible and Pastoral Theology, will teach "Methods of Evangelism" and "Church Planting."

"Say not ye, there are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? Behold, I say unto you, lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest"
(John 4:34).

Alumni Elect New Officers

A large group of Southeastern Alumni gathered in the Bob Berry Center at Southeastern on April 23. After a time of refreshments and fellowship, Promotional Director Jack Lassiter announced that Rev. Lorenza Stox, pastor of Parker's Chapel FWB Church in Greenville, NC, would become the new Alumni Advisor. In this position, Pastor Stox will help direct future projects and activities of the Alumni Association and work with President Bevan in defining specific goals. New officers were also elected: President, Michael Cox; Secretary, Rose Jones.

CONGRATULATIONS TO SOUTHEASTERN'S NEWEST Ph. D. Dr. Bruce Barnes

May 4, 1996, was a very special day both for the Barnes family and the Southeastern family where Dr. Barnes teaches. This date marked a major accomplishment in the life of Dr. Bruce Barnes and his supportive wife, Debbie. It was on this date that Dr. Barnes received his Ph. D. in Church Administration from Bob Jones University.

Dr. Barnes is a native of Smithfield, North Carolina. He was saved at West Calvary FWB Church under the ministry of Tom Lilly. He has both served as youth pastor and pastor. He is heavily involved in Vacation Bible School ministry in local churches during the summer. He also serves as associate pastor at Haven FWB Church. In keeping with the Southeastern philosophy of the local church, Dr. Barnes lives and practices what he teaches in the classroom.

Southeastern congratulates Dr. Barnes and offers financial assistance to other professors to pursue advanced degrees, several of whom are presently doing so. The college sincerely desires to aggressively pursue their stated goal of both spiritual and academic excellence with an emphasis on the practical.
