REFLECTIONS CONCERNING SOUTHEASTERN FREE WILL BAPTIST COLLEGE BY PRESIDENT JOSEPH G. ANGE

On July 31, 1989, I will complete four of the most fulfilling years of my life. Those have been the years of July, 1985 through July, 1989. It has been my pleasure, opportunity and challenge to serve as president of this great college for four wonderful years.

I am grateful to God, to the Board of Directors and our supporting pastors and friends for affording me the opportunity to serve God and our people here at Southeastern.

My sense of fulfillment comes from the realization that I have invested this part of my life to unite with others to bring to fruition the purpose stated in our Articles of Incorporation for which Southeastern Free Will Baptist College was founded — "To establish a Free Will Baptist College for the propagation of the faith."

To achieve this lofty purpose, the founding fathers chose the right name — Southeastern Free Will Baptist College. We are distinctively Free Will Baptist, yet our doors are open to everyone who desires to receive a Christ-centered Christian education. We do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin. Students of any race are admitted to all the rights and privileges generally accorded and made available to our students. This position has been a joy to maintain.

Our Constitution and Bylaws further state that Southeastern be established and maintained as a Christian, liberal arts college deeply committed to the promotion and propagation of a Christ-centered education that is scripturally sound. The main emphases are pastoral training, church schools and missions and then expanding to the various other disciplines as the needs arise.

Certain things have always been strongly emphasized at Southeastern. These are: strong local church, pastoral authority, soul-winning, revival, church day schools, world-wide missions, fundamentalist separatist (both personal and ecclesiastical), high academic standards, strong attention to the practical and expanding programs.

It has been such a joy to be the leader these four years of a college with such great commitments and practices. Southeastern was set in the right direction at the beginning. The college has continued in keeping with her original purpose and was never more committed to her original purposes than she is today.

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE

Paul admonishes Christians to "render therefore to all their dues" and one of the things mentioned in the context is that of honor. Therefore, it is Christian and fitting that we honor those with the dedication and determination to make the sacrifice and do the work to earn a degree from Southeastern. A college degree represents hundreds and hundreds of hours of diligent study plus many thousands of dollars in expenses. But, most of all, in a Christian context, it represents dedication and character. It represents an individual who desires that his or her life count for God. It represents a dedication to Jesus that manifests itself in the character necessary to get the job done. Graduates, you deserve that we honor you! Therefore, a hearty congratulations is in order for each of the following individuals:

Stephen Douglas Berry, B.A., Clayton Earl Cordell, B.A. (Cum Laude), Christopher Todd Haynes, B.A. (Cum Laude), James Oliver Mize, B.A., Michael Francis Rodriguez, B.A., Raymond Vincent Rutledge, B.A., Karl Jerome Sexton, B.A. (Magna Cum Laude), Donna Renee Stinson, B.A., Ralph Gregory Young, B.A., Kimberly Dawn Fairchild, B.S., Wendy Carol Haynes, B.S. (Cum Laude), William Michael Lee, B.S. (Cum Laude), Barney Doug Adkins, B.S., Lisa Carol Justice, B.S., Victoria Renee Lee, B.S. Darren Scott Rowley, Christian Worker's Bible Diploma, James David Welch, Christian Worker's Bible Diploma

Our prayers will be for God's choice blessings upon your lives as you move out to the front lines. May Dr. Stox's graduation challenge always be true of you. May you be able to handle the fires without because there is a fire burning within which compels you to even greater conquests for our Lord.

HIGHLIGHTING THE NEW MUSIC EDUCATION PROGRAM

Southeastern is pleased to announce a new addition to our music program — a Bachelor of Science Degree with a major in music education. This is much needed in order to better prepare young men and women to teach music in our churches and Christian schools on the junior high and high school levels.

A major in music education includes a combination of courses in the area of general requirements (35 hours), Bible (16 hours), music (50 hours) and education (30 hours) which gives a total of 131 credit hours required in order to graduate with this degree.

There have been several new courses added this year in order to accommodate the Music Education degree: choral arranging and instrumentation, vocal materials and methods, instrumental materials and methods, piano pedagogy, voice pedagogy, guitar and education practicum.

With the addition of these courses to the courses already offered, the student is given the opportunity to develop an adequate level of proficiency in order to be better prepared for Christian service in the area of music education.

This is quite an exciting time for the Music Department as it continues to expand. If you need further information, please contact the college.

All the members of the faculty, staff and board are fully committed to God, to our Free Will Baptist constituency, to our supporting churches and friends, to those who have entered these halls of training and to all future students who come for the training offered at Southeastern.

By God's help, we assure you that Southeastern Free Will Baptist College will stay on an unwavering course of training future leaders who will be true to the Bible, the purposes of the founding fathers and who respect and fulfill the noblest expectations of our most spiritual and discerning pastors and supporters.

On July 31, I will be leaving a great college — Southeastern Free Will Baptist College, "A College Whose Time Has Come." I leave a college that is worthy of your best effort. Keep sending your cherished sons and daughters to Southeastern. Please support Southeastern more than ever with your gifts. Above all, pray for this wonderful college engaged in the right kind of Christian education.

Also, please pray for me as I return to the field of full-time evangelism, August, 1989.

STILL TIME TO ENROLL

Dorms will open for our fall semester August 28, 1989. With the responses so far from students, we anticipate an increase in enrollment over last year.

There is still plenty of room for others who are interested and plenty of time to get all the necessary papers in. If you are interested or if you know of a young person who may be interested, please write to us or call us today.

BOB KING HEART FUND LAUNCHED

Most of our Standard readers know that Reverend Bob King, faithful pastor of Cramerton Free Will Baptist Church, is awaiting heart transplant surgery as soon as a heart is available.

The financial burden of his surgery will be enormous — approximately $70,000 hospital expenses, $10,000 surgeons fees and about $800 to $1000 per month in post operative medicines. This totals nearly $100,000.

The Cramerton church and friends of Brother Bob King have set up a Heart Fund to help defray these expenses. All checks should be made out to Cramerton Free Will Baptist Church and mailed to this address.

Your immediate generous response is needed. God bless you.

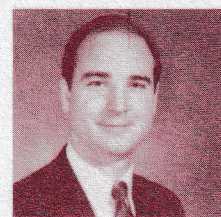

HONORING FAITHFUL LEADERS

On May 17, outgoing president Dr. Joseph Ange and his wife, Hazel, were honored with special presentations by the faculty, staff and student body.

The faculty presented Dr. Ange with a beautifully engraved plaque commemorating his tenure as president. Mrs. Ange was given a dozen, long-stemmed, red roses for her example and faithfulness. The student body presented Dr. Ange with a Bible.

Words of appreciation and continued prayers for the Ange's were expressed.

SOUTHEASTERN'S STAFF GROWS

A hearty welcome is extended to Mr. & Mrs. Robert Posner and their two children as Mr. Posner assumes the responsibility of men's dorm supervisor for Southeastern this fall.

Mr. & Mrs. Posner are from the Raleigh, North Carolina area and he is presently a student at Southeastern.

SECOND MILE CHURCHES WE APPRECIATE YOU

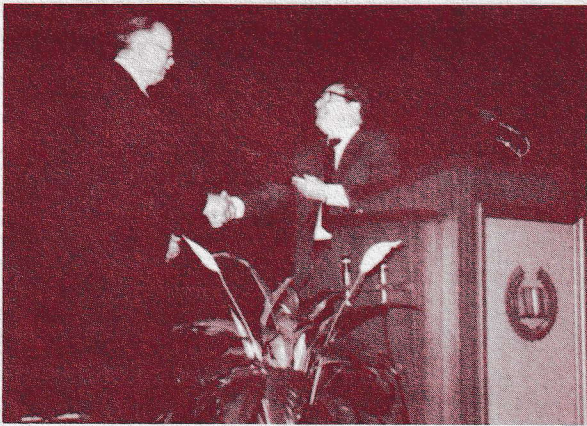

A challenge was made to the pastors of supporting churches of Southeastern several months ago. The challenge was for the pastors and their church to go the "second mile" getting at least 10 individuals from their church to contribute $10 a month for one year to the building program of Southeastern.

Recently, Rev. Van Dale Hudson honored the churches who met the challenge by the presentation of a scaled drawing of the campus of Southeastern Free Will Baptist College. These drawings were presented to the following churches and pastors: Rev. Willie Justice, Calvary FWB Church, Crewe, VA; Rev. Bob King, Cramerton FWB Church, Cramerton, NC; Dr. Randy Cox, First FWB Church, Raleigh, NC; Rev. Earl Hendrix, First FWB Church, Inman, SC; Rev. Billy Bevan, Hilltop FWB Church, Fuquay Varina, NC.

DEVOTED SERVICE HONORED

Dr. Joseph Haas was recently honored by the presentation of a plaque for his five (5) years of devoted service as Promotional Director for Southeastern Free Will Baptist College. Dr. Haas served the college in this capacity from August, 1983 through July, 1988.

Dr. Haas is continuing his ministry with Southeastern through teaching full-time in the missions department.
