TRINITY TIGERS TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

The 1989 Southeastern Tip-Off Tournament proved to be both exciting and a time of good fellowship. The Trinity Tigers, Greenville, NC repeated as the tournament champion by defeating Faith Christian from Goldsboro, NC. Trinity won a squeaker over Hilltop by two points in overtime in the semi-final round.

There was also a good time of fellowship between the participants and the sponsors with those who came from across the country to compete in this year's tournament. One interesting feature of this tournament was that five of the eight teams competing were coached by Southeastern graduates.

Schools competing in the tournament this year were:

UPDATE ON MISCHA

Because of the outpouring of concern shown to our family on behalf of our daughter, Mischa, I would like to give you a brief report on her condition.

At the writing of this article, Mischa has already had eleven radiation treatments. She is to have 30 in all and should complete the treatments, if all goes well, by the end of January.

As far as the tumor is concerned, things look pretty good in that regard. The problem has been with the "shunts" for the drainage of the fluid around the brain. There is a possibility that some more corrective surgery may have to be done on the "shunts." We should know about the middle of January.

Mischa continues to be strong in spirit and has a real desire to get back involved in church and school even though the radiation treatments have been physically draining on her.

We are really grateful to God for the progress she has made. Please continue to remember us in your prayers; we still have a way to go. Our family will never forget your cards, calls and especially your prayers!

GET ACQUAINTED DAYS

April 19-21

The spring session of Get Acquainted Days at Southeastern will be April 19-21. Prospective students will arrive on campus Thursday afternoon and will be departing Saturday morning. Packed between those few days will be approximately 38 hours of fun, fellowship, excellent food and a glimpse of life on the campus of Southeastern. It could be the most important time in the lives of those who attend.

Make your plans now to attend and bring as many as you can. For further information, please call our office or write us at P.O. Box 1700, Wendell, NC 27591.

SPECIAL GIFT

Recently, a Christian businessman gave a new 31" console Quaser TV for our social lounge. We certainly want to thank Bro. Robert Worthington for this nice gift which will make it possible for students to view special events as well as allowing times for them to watch things of interest to college students. Thank you, Mr. Worthington.

So Sorry . . . In the November Standard under the article "Special Gift Received", it should have listed Mr. & Mrs. Elmo Hawkins as the donors.

CAMPUS LIFE

The spirit on campus during the fall semester was great! There were several elements that contributed to this that are worth mentioning.

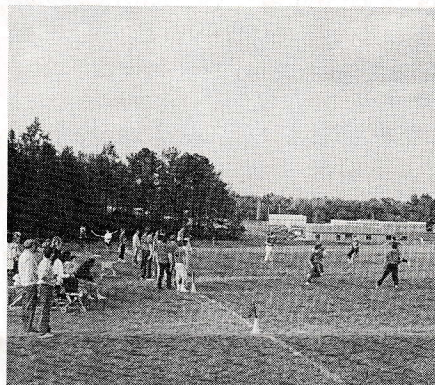

The energetic leadership of Bro. Bevan as the new college President provided the rallying point.

Student leaders (society officers and student body officers) served wisely giving input and participation in activities. They met prior to the opening of the semester to be challenged about leadership and to plan the activities for the coming year.

Men's societies were re-organized into two societies, Delta Kappa and Sigma Chi. The women's societies, the Susannah Wesley's and Amy Carmichael's, were placed as sister societies for mutual support during activities. Intra-mural competition in various games and sports provided excitement and attendance to watch teams and individuals compete for their respective societies. (Who will forget the tennis tournament finals or the excitement of flag football!) Societies compete all year toward the Competition Cup to be given for overall achievement.

A forum for lecture/debate/discussion was planned and begun in October. Aptly named "The Agora" after Acts 17:17, this setting is to provide a time for college students to consider contemporary issues and the application of Biblical truth to them. The first one held generated much interest and anticipation of the next. At least two more are planned for the spring semester.

Other factors could be mentioned such as the overall appearance of the campus, powerful chapel services, a new schedule, etc. The truth is that exciting things are happening at Southeastern. It's a great place to attend college.

BOB KING VIDEO

Bob King, former pastor of Cramerton Free Will Baptist Church,

Cramerton, NC was an outstanding Christian and pastor. He served as a founding member of the Southeastern Free Will Baptist College Board, a position he held until his homegoing September 27, 1989.

In the fall of 1989, Brother King had heart-transplant surgery. After the transplant, he returned to his church to preach. After his return to preach, he told several that he wanted the video of that service to be used by the college in some way to help raise funds in training Christian young people.

We are giving a video-tape of Bob's sermon upon returning to the pulpit and his funeral to any church or individual who will give a Bob King Memorial Offering of $100 or more. Many friends who could or could not attend the funeral, plus many churches where Bob had ministered will treasure this victorious item of remembrance. When you send your gift, please earmark it Bob King Memorial Gift and ask for your tape.

15 revivals a year. He presently serves on the North Carolina State Executive Committee.

Pastor Randy Cox has been at the First FWB Church of Raleigh for 16 years. The church has grown from 150 to an average attendance of 584 in 1988. They have a multi-ministry church with a daycare and school presently enrolling 575. Their church staff numbers over 60.

Bro. Cox received his BA from Free Will Baptist Bible College and a Doctor of Divinity from Hyles Anderson.

Bro. Lester Horton has pastored the Fairwood FWB Church in Fairfax Station, VA for 32 years. He has conducted a weekly radio broadcast for 25 years that reaches Northern Virginia, Washington, DC and parts of Maryland and West Virginia. Bro. Horton has preached in more than 20 states.

We hope you will make plans to attend our conference this year. It will be a great time of preaching, music and fellowship. Please pray for each of our speakers as they prepare to preach to us.

1990 POCKET CALENDAR

Have you received your "free" 1990 pocket calendar yet? We have given thousands to pastors and friends at national, state, and district meetings. Yet some of our friends call or write asking for one. They say they depend on it throughout the year. If you haven't received one, call or write us.

ICE AND SNOW — BUT CRAFT FESTIVAL GOES ON

Southeastern had its craft festival as scheduled on Saturday, December 9th, but the Lord had a lot of ice and snow planned for the same weekend. The combination of the two did not work well together. The students, faculty, staff and local church folks supported us in a wonderful way in spite of the weather. When the final total is in, we will profit about $1000. The money will go toward student activities.

We want to say "thank you" to each individual and church who contributed anything toward the festival. You were so kind and considerate and without you the festival would have been impossible. Craft Sponsor

BOOKS LIVE ON FLOWERS DIE

Guy and Marie Owens look over books they are donating to Southeastern's library in memory of recently deceased friends.

Instead of sending flowers to a funeral, the Owens express their sympathy by informing the family that books are being given to Southeastern Free Will Baptist College in memory of the deceased.

Flowers fade and die. Books live on for years helping students in preparing for Christian life and service.

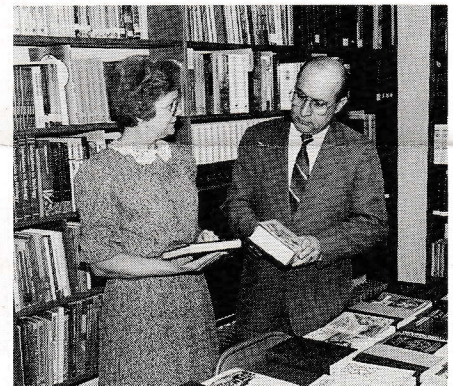

One of the greatest needs we have is to add hundreds of resource books to our library.

If you would like to pay your respects to the loved ones of a deceased friend, send your gift in memory of your friend. We will send an appropriate letter acknowledging your memorial gift to the family of the deceased.

Books were recently donated in memory of the following:

Mrs. Frank (Amanda) Sells
Mrs. Newton (Grace) Howle
Mrs. Bill (Clara) McMahan
Mr. Eugene Watkins
Mrs. Leven (Noly) Lee
Rev. Bob King
