PRESIDENT

WHAT A YEAR!

This Year And Next!

Billy Bevan, President

It is hard to believe that graduation is just a few days away. It seems as though it was only yesterday that I told the Board of Directors I would accept the presidency of Southeastern. The year has flown by for me. It has been a real learning experience. It has been an exciting year, and the spirit on campus has been great. I have enjoyed the year and am thankful to the Lord for all of His blessings.

We are busily working on next year! Our Service 1990 Student Recruitment Campaign is proving to be very successful. We have been able to contact many prospective students in March and April and already have several who have responded. It appears that we will have a record-breaking recruiting year. Please continue to pray for our recruiting efforts and help us if you can. Our staff is really excited about our fall enrollment.

We are committed to offer the best possible service to our students, their parents, and our pastors and their churches. We truly want to have a servant's heart. We believe we can excel in this area and are committed to see that we do.

If great morale means anything, I believe next year will prove to be an even better year. We already have much of next year's schedule and activities planned. Our staff is working exceptionally hard to make the schedule of events even more exciting. The following events are already planned:

August ➡ Faculty and Staff Retreat
Student Leadership Conference
Freshmen Report Early

September ➡ White Water Rafting
Campus Revival

October ➡ Southeastern Knights Basketball Team
Begins Play

November ➡ Missions Conference
Tip Off Basketball Tournament
Get Acquainted Days

December ➡ Christmas Banquet

January ➡ Snow Skiing Trip
Minister's Retreat

February ➡ Sweetheart Banquet

March ➡ Revival and Soul
Winning Conference

April ➡ King's Dominion Trip
Get Acquainted Days

May ➡ Commencement

There are other events, outings, seminars, etc., that are in the making. We are going to stay on the job planning for next fall, and we feel very confident that God is going to send us a host of new students.

If I can be of help to you, please feel free to call on me. We're here to serve "you." We love our students and we want you to know you have a "friend" at Southeastern.

SUPER SUCCESS

Spring Get Acquainted Days

WHAT A WEEKEND! Excitement abounded as Southeastern students prepared for "Get Acquainted Days," April 19-21. Preparation meant making gifts for incoming guests, practicing skits for presentation during "Friday Night Frolics", sprucing up rooms for that homey atmosphere and drawing of posters and signs to welcome new and returning friends. Work? Yes. Fun? You bet.

RESULTS: Super Success--the best Get Acquainted Days ever! We had 105 visiting prospective students; 43 of these were seniors or graduates, 30 juniors, 24 sophomores and 5 freshman. Twenty-seven sponsors brought their youth from twelve states: North Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia, South Carolina, Oklahoma, Missouri, Indiana, Maryland, Alabama, Michigan, Arkansas and Kentucky.

What else could you ask for in a SUPER WEEKEND--good food, fellowship, testimonies, music, challenges from God's Word, fun-fantastics (championship egg toss, pillow basketball, oddball softball, kickball pandemonium, etc.) skits.....We had it all!

All prospective students are encouraged to mark your calendars for the fall Get Acquainted Days, November 1-3, 1990. We are making BIG PLANS for YOU.

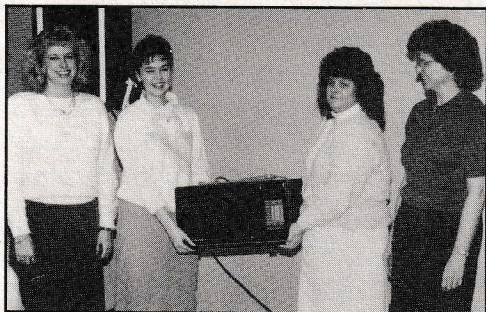

AMY CARMICHAEL SOCIETY PRESENTS GIFT

The Amy Carmichael Society has been busy this year doing their best to make a contribution to the college and campus life.

Some of their projects for the year have been the purchasing of gifts for prospective students for presentation during Get Acquainted Days, honoring different faculty/staff personnel weekly and the donation of table games for use by the students during activity times.

One of the most recent presentations was the gift of a microwave to be used in the girl's dorm. This was presented to Mrs. Fulcher by Vice-President, Kristi Rollins, along with Shannon Dunn and Tracy Hadder.

PASTORS:

Please use our students in your church this summer. They want to serve the Lord by serving you and your congregation!

1990 GRADUATES SPEAK OUT

If I were to summarize in a word what Southeastern has meant for me over the past four years, it would be "challenge." There has been an academic challenge that has caused me to consider why I believe what I believe. The faculty has also done a wonderful job at whetting my spiritual appetite--sometimes through a sermon preached, at times by a class taught, and nearly always by a life lived.

Bill Jewell, Wilmington, North Carolina

Southeastern has helped me in my personal relationship with God through the Bible classes. It has also helped in relation to entering the pastoral ministry through practical principles taught.

Danny Barrow, Grifton, North Carolina

I guess the thing that is most special to me is the closeness between faculty and students. Our school is small enough for everyone to get to know each other and become friends.

Lena Pittman, Wellford, South Carolina

The unique relationship that exists between the professors and students is what I like the best. The professors have a genuine interest in us and always have an open door to discuss problems and give wise counsel. At Southeastern, I don't feel like "just another student."

Tony Bazen, Durham, North Carolina

Southeastern is a great place for fellowship. I have made so many wonderful friends since I've been here. I know they will be lasting friendship that I will always cherish.

Gaye Davis, Amory, Mississippi

At Southeastern, the teachers have concern for each student. They are faithful to listen and really care and understand the need of each individual.

Kim Wilson, Gastonia, North Carolina

The professors try to develop in the students a heart that cares for and helps people.

Norris Newman, Raleigh, North Carolina

Being at Southeastern has made me realize the necessity of prayer and devotions. I've learned to depend on God more than I ever have before. I have also gained many friends that I'll have for a lifetime.

Stephanie Pryor, Henderson, North Carolina

STUDENTS TO DO SUMMER MISSIONS WORK

Two of Southeastern's students will be doing missions work this summer.

Elizabeth Stancill, a junior, will be going to Brazil to assist Bobby and Sue Aycock in their missions endeavors. She has been busy raising her support and is looking forward to what the summer holds for her. Elizabeth is a member of Shady Grove Free Will Baptist Church, Durham, North Carolina, where Rev. John Moran pastors.

Elizabeth Stancill

Angela Bivins

Angela Bivins, a freshman, will be going to Papua, New Guinea, to assist in furthering the mission work there. She will be leaving the United States June 17 and will return August 9. Angela is a member of the First Free Will Baptist Church, Gastonia, North Carolina, where Rev. William Calvert pastors.

TRANSPORTATION NEEDS BEING MET

Until recently, transportation has been the biggest need (and greatest weakness) in the Department of Christian Service. Due to the lack of transportation, consistently getting students to churches and other places of ministry on time has been one big headache! However, a group of men recently contributed a 15 passenger van that has met the need.

The van will be used for bus workers, nursing home visitation, a tract team (new ministry because of the van) and other transportation needs where students are involved in Christian Service ministries. It will be used almost every day of the week.

Thank you to those who met a great need. It was indeed an answer to our prayers. It should mean better student participation and more souls won to Christ.

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE.....

As the 1989-90 college year draws to a close, faculty, staff and students are already excited about the fall semester which officially opens August 28 with registration. Prospects for fall enrollment looks great and we are expecting an increase.

☛ Faculty/staff retreat August 9-11

to pray, plan and prepare for the upcoming year. This will be a time of evaluating our program in an effort to make Southeastern the best it can possibly be in every area.

☛ Student leaders will be arriving August 21

to help plan activities and programs for the coming year. Special sessions on "student leadership" will be held for training the students in being effective and spiritual leaders.

☛ All new students will arrive a few days early, August 23 to be oriented to life on the campus of Southeastern. There will be fun times and seminars as well as times of sharing and preparing for their upcoming year.

The faculty and staff are earnestly praying, as never before, for God to send us the exact students we need--students that earnestly want to do God's will.

AUTHOR TO SPEAK AT GRADUATION

Dr. A. A. Baker, an author and Christian educator, will deliver the commencement address May 17 for Southeastern Free Will Baptist College.

A. A. Baker Communications is headquartered in Taylors, South Carolina where Dr. Baker serves as a consultant to Christian organizations across the nation. He is author of The Successful Christian School and has had 25 years in Christian education. He has helped in establishing a Christian college, a Christian textbook publishing company and a Christian radio station.

The commencement will be held at First Free Will Baptist Church, Raleigh, North Carolina, 10:00 A. M.

DOES GOD EVER NEED ANYTHING?

Guy Owens

Could God, who created everything, ever have a need? Jesus sent his disciples to fetch a donkey. If the owner should ask why they wanted the animal they were to say, "The Lord hath need of him." That would be enough, the donkey would be given. Jesus needed the donkey to use to ride into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday.

This college belongs to the Lord and He is doing a great work here. The operation of this ministry presents many needs. Buildings, salaries, materials, traveling groups, utilities, etc. There were some unforeseen expenses in relocation that have really, really "kept our nose to the grindstone."

If you have been on our campus or been in service where our traveling groups minister, you have seen our product and know what we are doing.

This ministry is worthy of your support and really needs your help just now. Will you consider today sending us a gift in the enclosed envelope to help the Lord in this work He is doing? We really do need your support.
