ONE HUNDRED CLUB

A One Million Dollar Promotional Plan

What a difference $19.50 a week can make. That is what it costs to become a member of one of the most important "clubs" in America. It can be the means of greatly relieving the financial pressures Southeastern has been under and enable us to do a much better job at educating our students.

As many of you already know, the One Hundred Club is a move to enlist 100 individuals or churches to give $1000 each year for the next five years with the hope of renewing for another five if circumstances allow.

As of this printing, we are one tenth of the way toward our goal of $100,000 for the first year. Bro. Bill Steele's church in Bedford, Virginia, is the leader so far with four members. Bro. Randy Cox's church in Raleigh, North Carolina, is second (with three and others anticipated). Bro. Dann Patrick's church in Goldsboro, North Carolina, is presently in the midst of an enlistment program which could produce from eight to ten members. Bro. Bob Lollar from Bro. David Crowe's church, Cookeville FWB Church in Cookeville, Tennessee and Rev. Tom Lilly, North Carolina State Promotional Director are also members.

By the middle of April, we had ten enlisted with the possibility of having as many as twenty by May 1. That will put us one fifth of the way toward our goal. I have contacts with another ten to fifteen good leads which could put us one third of the way home. If you know someone who could participate, contact us and we will follow up. Pastor, maybe you could get your church to join? It will mean $19.50 per week. Many of our adult Sunday School classes could handle that easily.

One person's $19.50 will not make much of a dent in Southeastern's budget but one hundred individuals and churches joined together can make a major impact on training young lives to make a mark on this generation for Christ. I challenge you to join, even if it means sacrifice. Your investment will certainly reap real dividends in this generation and in eternity to come. *

What A Conference!

Although this year's Revival and Soul Winning Conference provided the usual benefits of warm fellowship, stirring music, and dynamic preaching, there were several highlights that indeed made this 10th annual conference exciting.

Many were thrilled to hear Dr. Lee Roberson for the first time. His very presence was an inspiration to everyone, and his preaching was a tremendous challenge and encouragement to young and old alike.

As usual the music concert on Tuesday evening was excellent, but this year's record attendance was also able to hear Squire Parsons sing several of his own compositions, including Beulah Land backed by our choir.

The preaching in this year's conference was simply outstanding! Rev. A. B. Brown, Rev. Dann Patrick, Dr. Randy Cox and Rev. Tim Rabon emphasized the motifs of "soul-winning, surrender, and separation" with power and anointing. Two of Southeastern's graduates, Rev. Karl Sexton and Rev. Jeff Jones, delivered outstanding messages that challenged our hearts. The "tent meeting" atmosphere (both the spirit and the temperature!) was wonderful.

Thanks to all of you who supported this year's conference with your attendance, prayers and finances. We praise God for His blessing, and we rejoice in the many decisions that were made.✱

Southeastern Alumni Receives Honorable Mention Preaching Award

Rev. Greg Hollifield's sermon, "A Matter of Who, Not Why?", has been chosen as one of the ten Honorable Mention in the 1992 Small Church Preaching Awards.

A native of Erwin, Tennessee, Greg received his BA from Southeastern and MA from Pensacola Christian College. He currently serves the First Free Will Baptist Church of Mobile, Alabama. The sermon is listed in the book, Shining Lights, which was released in March. ✱

SPOTLIGHT ON ALUMNI

Scott and Tina Wright graduated from Southeastern in 1987 with Bachelor in Christian Education degrees. Both Scott and Tina taught at Gateway Christian School in Virginia Beach, VA, until the summer of 1990 when Scott became youth pastor at the First FWB Church of Sulligent, Alabama. While there, Tina served as music director.

In 1992, Scott began pastoring the First FWB Church in Amory, MS, where he still serves. While Scott is busy pastoring, Tina serves as youth choir director, sings in the church choir, and majors on taking care of their young son, Kaleb Scott.

Alumni Association Reports Good Meeting

It was a great joy to spend a few days with Alumni friends during the Revival and Soul Winning Conference and the Alumni Luncheon especially. The luncheon was a success with 34 in attendance.

Vice-President Timothy Williams presided over the Alumni's annual luncheon. A project consisting of purchasing and installing a water fountain for the academic building was adopted for the upcoming year as well as beginning a Alumni Scholarship Fund. The 1993-94 officers were elected as follows: President, Timothy Williams; Vice-President, Karl Sexton; and Secretary/Treasurer, Sonya Cheney.

I was very much encouraged with the results of the luncheon and am looking forward to achieving the goals that were made for the Alumni Association. Renewing old friendships and meeting new friends were special highlights. The luncheon was a perfect way to start our Tenth Anniversary Celebration.

I would like to urge all of the Alumni from Southeastern to become active members of the association. This can be accomplished by sending in your dues of $7.00 for an individual or $10.00 for a couple. Also, please consider helping us in completing this year's project by making a contribution as soon as possible. (If you made a commitment during the luncheon, please remember to get it in to us.) Funds should be sent to: Miss Sonya Cheney, PO Box 1700, Wendell, NC, 27591. Be sure to earmark your gift "Alumni Projects."

Southeastern Free Will Baptist College has touched many of our lives in a way that we could never repay. Let's show our support by investing in Southeastern today. We can make a difference for the future!

Get Acquainted Days

We Had a Blast!

Did we have a great time or what?

One of our own students said "This was the best Get Acquainted Days ever." Although the group was a little smaller than usual with only 63 students (and 17 sponsors) the excitement was enough for a group twice that size.

To be quite honest, we felt that the last couple of Get Acquainted Days were a bit flat - if you catch my drift. Well, not this time! We spent two and one-half days together and, to put it mildly, we had a blast!

One change we made was to give the visiting students a taste of what real college classes are like. If a professor was teaching about Romans 8:28, or the cost of gasoline on the mission field, or the doctrine of soteriology, or meiosis or running a spelling checker in a word processor, that is exactly what the student heard.

One of the highlights of the event was our games on Friday. We assigned each visitor to a team - Red, Yellow, Green or Blue, which was really Orange (you had to be there). Then we had bunches of games to participate in, including, Hop Scotch, 'wrong handed' ping pong, 'give away' checkers, tic-tac-toe, a signature scavenger hunt and many, many more! The biggest excitement came when Chris Faircloth from Fuquay-Varina, NC and Krista Dees from Pearl, MS matched up in the championship game of 'paper football.' Chris grabbed that paper triangle that was the football from off of the floor and made a last second, desperation shot which just barely hung over the edge of the table for a score at the buzzer and the win!! Now, that was fun.

Next fall we'll have another Get Acquainted Days on November 4-6 and again in the spring on March 31-April 2. Please make plans to attend. ✱

Most Outstanding Student Chosen

The Most Outstanding Student Award is presented each year to a graduating senior that is chosen by the Administration and Faculty of the college. The selection is based upon leadership, character, academic performance, potential service and reputation among peers. For a student, this award represents the highest level of achievement at Southeastern.

This year the award is presented to Matthew Loren Pettit (Matt). Matt will graduate in May with a Bachelor in Biblical Studies degree. He has had an intense preaching schedule for the past two years and is currently working for

Southeastern in the area of student recruitment. ✱

Missions Update!!

Five Students to Serve as Summer Missionaries

What a challenge we have before us today to go into all the world with the "Glorious Gospel" of our blessed Lord. Southeastern was founded with a wonderful motto, "To Know Him and To Make Him Known." That motto is still very much alive on our campus. God has been calling our students and at the present time we have four graduates who are involved in planting new churches here in the states and ten more who are getting their experience before going into mission work. Praise God for His moving among our students.

Five of our students will be going as summer missionaries this summer to different parts of the world to help in spreading the gospel. Michael Fulcher will be going to France to work

Christy Edmonds

Christy Edmonds will fly to Brazil to share in the ministry of the Poole family, and Sherri Howell will be going with the TEAM group to Panama and Uruguay. Pray for these fine young people and pray with us that God will call many more of our students to go into all the world with the "Good News"

Catalina Barquero

with the Teague family, Darin Alvis will be going to Germany to help the Heath family, Catalina Barquero will be ministering with the Lytle family in Panama, of salvation.

If you would like to share in the ministry of these dedicated young people, send your offering to the Foreign Missions Department, PO Box 5002, Antioch, TN, 37011-5002, earmarked to their accounts. ✱
