GREAT PREACHING CONFERENCE PLANNED FOR SPRING MEETING

One of the annual highlights of the Southeastern college year is our spring conference which will be held April 17-19. The conference will be on our campus again in the big tent! It's going to be like "old camp meeting days" and we're excited about this year's program.

Rev. Curtis Linton from Tulsa, OK, a conference favorite will return to preach along with newcomer, Rev. Roger Duncan of Tampa, FL.

Curtis Linton

Bro. Duncan is used widely as a camp meeting and revival preacher. Free Will Baptist Evangelist John Gibbs will also be preaching and also singing. Bro. John is doing some outstanding work in our churches. Staff member, Rev. Jack Lassiter, will also participate. Conference and camp meeting style preaching is Bro. Jack's specialty. He is at his best in such a setting. You will enjoy this man of God. South Carolina pastor, Rev. Dale McCoy, will round out the conference preachers. Bro. Dale is doing a good job at the Canaan FWB Church in Lancaster.

On Monday night, the Rowlands from Morristown, TN, will be here to sing for us and on Tuesday night, our college choir will present their annual choir program. All of our college groups will sing along with Bro. John Gibbs. The music in itself will be a tremendous blessing.

I hope you will take advantage of this conference. I believe it will be an encouragement and challenge if you will attend. I'd like to see us have 1,000 people in the Monday and Tuesday evening services.

Begin planning now to attend, April 17-19. (Oh yes, please pray that the weather will cooperate!)

You Can Experience God's Leading in Your Life, Too!

"After I was saved, I realized God had a special plan for my life. When the Southeastern Choir came to my church on tour, I found out that plan involved attending a Christian college. Their warmth and friendliness showed me that God wanted me at Southeastern. I thank God for the great impact Southeastern has had on my life already."

CURTAIN CLOSES ON "LOVE WILL BE OUR HOME"

Sunday, December 4, 1994, was an unforgettable day for the Sounds of Praise Ensemble. Under the direction of Mr. Kevin Skiles, the musical drama, "Love Will Be Our Home," was presented for the final time. This was Southeastern FWB College Day at Parker's Chapel FWB Church in Greenville, NC. Pastor Lorenza Stox and his good people rolled out the "red carpet" for our college on this eventful day. The morning service featured the singing of the college choir under the direction of Mr. David Rhodes. During the evening service, the Sounds of Praise presented "Love Will Be Our Home." As a result of the powerful impact of this drama, once again the altars were filled with people determined to protect their families from the attacks of the devil.

By day's end Parker's Chapel church had contributed over $37,000.00 to Southeastern. With the addition of check-books and budgeted church giving throughout the year, Parker's Chapel will exceed $60,000.00 in gifts to Southeastern by the end of 1995.

We praise the Lord for people who have a heart for the ministry of Southeastern FWB College. I would like to encourage every pastor to consider scheduling a Southeastern FWB College Day in your church.
