

The STANDARD

*To Know Him
And
To Make Him Known*

July 1994

WHY I USE THE KING JAMES VERSION

There is a great debate going on in the church today over modern translations versus the King James translation which has been the standby of the Church for almost four hundred years. I heard the director of the Bible Broadcasting Network speaking on this issue the other day. He told of being in a rather large, fundamental Baptist church when the pastor took a poll of the translations being used in church on that particular day. Brother Davies said that 30% were using the KJV while 70% were using a different translation. This is reflected in the fact that for the past four or five years the NIV has outsold the KJV. This indicates that we are living in a transition period, when in a generation or two, few people will be using the KJV.

However, I personally am still very satisfied with the KJV. It is the translation of my choice for a number of reasons.

1. First of all, it is an excellent translation. I do not call myself an expert in the Greek language but I have taught N.T. Greek for over a dozen years and have translated large segments of the N.T. The KJV is an excellent translation.

I have compared the Byzantine Text, from which the KJV was translated, with the Alexandrian Text in a number of places and found that the debate that rages over the superiority of one text over the other is not the critical issue that some seek to make it. There are differences but none of them would destroy a single doctrine of the Christian faith. It is possible to take either text and from either make a translation which would include every doctrine of the Christian faith.

2. Secondly, the KJV is unparalleled for its linguistic and poetic beauty. Few documents in the history of mankind have exerted so much influence upon a people and its language as the KJV has upon the English speaking people of the world.

3. Thirdly, the KJV has stood the test of time and God has honored it. It has a lengthy track record. It has been tried and proven. I recognize when I say this that this argument, if taken back to 1611 when the KJV was originally published, would eliminate the KJV since it would at that time have been the modern and untried translation.

However, I am not using this argument to eliminate the possibility of any other translation. I am not arguing that because God has blessed and used the KJV that He will never bless and use any other translation. That is an assumption without Biblical evidence. I am simply making the undeniable observation that the KJV, at this point in time, has a long and established track record. God has blessed and used it and for this reason I feel comfortable using it.

4. I am comfortable with the KJV. This could be explicable for a number of reasons. One reason is that it is the translation that I have always used. All of the verses which I have memorized over the years are from the KJV. I have had my devotions from it for over 35 years. I have taught from it on the college level for ten years. I am familiar with it. I have read it enough that if you misquote a verse from the N.T., most of the time I will be able to detect the change.

5. It has more of an authoritative ring to it than many of the modern translations. This is probably more due to my background and age but the language of the KJV impresses my mind in a more authoritative manner than most modern translations do. One thing is for certain, the demise of this country began when the liberal church abandoned the Bible as the inspired, infallible, inerrant, authoritative Word of God. As a direct result of

HOMELITICS TEACHER SECURED

President Billy Bevan is pleased to announce the addition of Rev. Nate Ange to the Southeastern staff as part-time professor in the area of homiletics. Bro. Ange is well known and respected for his ministry with young people. He is an outstanding preacher in his own right and is presently doing a great job as the pastor of Landmark Free Will Baptist Church of Cary, North Carolina.

MISSIONS SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED

Dr. Joe Haas, Chairman of Southeastern's Missions Department, presented the Haas Missionary Scholarship to two students this year. Students receiving the scholarships were Lauri Addison, VA, and Bill Reynolds, RI.

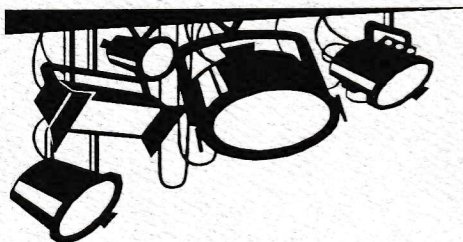

MISSIONS CONFERENCE SET

For a challenging look at the task of the church through world missions, make your plans to attend Southeastern's annual missions conference set for October 20-21.

Speakers for the conference will include: Dale Bishop, missionary to Japan; Cliff Donoho, home missionary to Iowa; Doug King, pastor of Cramerton FWB Church, Cramerton, NC; and D. L. Dwyer, Vice President of Southeastern College.

One of the benefits of attending a Christian college is the possibility of meeting your life's companion. Such was the case in 1985 when Ricky Moses of Durham, NC, chose to attend Southeastern. While at Southeastern, Ricky met Evelyn Endres and decided that she was the one for him. Ricky and Evelyn were married on July 11, 1986. Evelyn graduated from Southeastern in 1987 with a Bachelor of Christian Education degree.

Ricky and Evelyn now live in Durham, NC, where Ricky works at Southeastern Machine and Tool. Evelyn has taught at Raleigh Christian Academy for the past six years and is presently K4 and Daycare Director.

Ricky and Evelyn have two adorable boys, Matthew, 4 years old and Joshua, almost two.

KING JAMES CON'T...

her rejection of the Bible as authoritative, America is today like a ship lost at sea without sails or a rudder. She is driven by the latest humanistic consensus. She has no authoritative voice in matters of religion, ethics, morality, politics, or social values.

This should not be construed as a "KJV only" argument. It should be viewed as a defense of a good translation. It does contain some archaic language but it is still an excellent translation which will feed the soul of any man who will study it. Further, it will direct on how to live the Christian life down here and how to make heaven his eternal home. I can recommend the KJV as an excellent translation without one single reservation.

A. B. Brown
Academic Dean

ALUMNI SPOTLIGHT

MRS. LARUE HOWELL GIVES SPECIAL GIFT TO COLLEGE

On Tuesday night, April 19th, at our annual Revival and Soul Winning Conference, Mrs. Larue Howell of Florence, SC, presented Southeastern College with a check for $5,000 to establish a married student's loan fund in memory of her late husband, Rev. Danny Howell. Bro. Howell was the pastor of the First Free Will Baptist Church in Florence, SC, until a freak accident took him from us.

Mrs. Howell stated, "When Danny and I were at Bible College, there were people who helped us. Danny would be proud to know that he was helping married students to be able to complete their college education."

On behalf of our Board of Directors, our college staff, and our students, I want to thank Mrs. Howell and the children for this very special gift. We will do our best to be good stewards of this loan fund and handle it in such a way as to accomplish your intended purpose. Thank you so much for your generosity.

Please continue to pray for Mrs. Howell and the children. Sherri is a student at Southeastern and Michelle and Josh are students at Florence Christian Academy.

Journey Home

We are happy to announce that we now have available a brand new recording project, Journey Home.

Journey Home was recorded by our ensemble, The Sounds of Praise, and includes such old favorites as Wouldn't take Nothin' for my Journey, Steppin' on the Clouds, Camp Meetin' Medley, and a real oldie, Saved and Happy.

The project, under the direction of Kevin Skiles, also includes Lamb of God, One Scarred Hand and a song written by Kevin Skiles and Keith Owens, It's Not What You Can Do. Mr. Skiles also arranged six of the ten songs on the tape.

Journey Home is available in cassette tapes for $10 each or CD's for $15 each.

We also are making available, Southeastern Favorites, a set of three previous tapes.

This trip of recordings includes the two quartet tapes, Old Time Way and Love Went Deeper, along with the choir tape, In The Midst of it All.

Southeastern Favorites is available for $15.

Southeastern FAVORITES

July? What does this mid-summer month mean to you? To many it speaks of hot weather, cookouts and vacations. At Southeastern, it is a time of anticipation and preparation.

YOU may be one of those who has not yet applied for admission. Get those applications in as quickly as possible for July is a time of acceptance letters, roommates being assigned, etc. Don't miss the 1994-95 college year at SOUTHEASTERN!

We're looking forward to seeing you.

Free Will Baptist College
Southeastern
 532 EAGLE ROCK ROAD • P.O. BOX 1700
 Wendell, NC 27591 • (919) 365-7711

NON-PROFIT
 U.S. POSTAGE PAID
 WENDELL, NC
 PERMIT NO. 38

PROMOTIONAL STAFF SCHEDULE

July 16-21: National Association, Little Rock, AR

July 22-24: Student Revivalist, Brian Williams and Sounds of Praise Ensemble at First FWB Church, Gastonia, NC

July 25-29: Brian Williams, Youth Camp, WV

July 31: Brian Williams, First FWB Church, Chester SC, a.m. service and Cannanland FWB Church, Lancaster, SC, p.m. service; Jack Lassiter, Shady Grove, Durham, NC.

 August 1-5: Brian Williams, SC Youth Camp

August 7-10: Brian Williams, Fellowship Baptist Church, Muncie, IN; Jack Lassiter, New Life FWB Church, Lancaster, SC

August 14: Jack Lassiter, White Savannah FWB Church, Conway, SC, a.m.; Southside FWB Church, Darlington, SC, p.m.

August 21: Jack Lassiter, High Point FWB Church, Lancaster, SC, a.m.

REMEMBER THESE DATES

August 17-19: Student Leadership Conference

August 20: Freshman arrive

August 22: Dorms open for all other students, 10:00 a.m.

August 22-23: Freshman Orientation

August 23: Registration. Opening service, 7:00 p.m.

August 24: Classes begin

ATTENTION!!

The Department of Humanities & Science would like all alumni who took the humanities course to return to Southeastern the text used, Moral Development, by Bonnidell Clouse. It is currently out of print and we need as many copies as we can find. Compensation will be made for your assistance.

