*To Know Him
And
To Make Him Known*

November 1994

Are you a grateful
Christian? It often seems that the only time many of us turn our hearts and minds toward "thanksgiving" is a couple of days a year at the end of November.

I submit to you that as Christians our hearts should be filled with gratitude and thanksgiving every day! There are so many things for which we should be thankful, and yet it seems we often lose sight of all the wonderful blessings God has sent our way.

We should be thankful for our country, our church, our families, good friends, God's faithfulness, our salvation, and the promise of His return! Certainly, we must agree with the Psalmist David when he said, "Blessed be the Lord who daily loadeth us with benefits..." (Ps. 68:19). As we study the doctrine of thanksgiving, we need to understand the importance that God places upon having a thankful, grateful heart. It is not a trivial matter with God! When we understand God's perspective, we will understand why He levels such a strong indictment in Scripture against an unthankful heart and spirit.

In Romans 1, we are given the categories of sin that illustrate for us the depravity of man. One of those sins listed is an ungrateful heart (v. 21).

Then when Paul wrote to Timothy about perilous times, one of the characteristics of the end times would be "unthankfulness" (II Tim. 3:2).

When the Lord healed the ten lepers, and only one came back to say "thank you," Jesus took note of him. He also took note of the nine who forgot to say

THE GRACE OF GRATITUDE

"thank you" (Lk. 17:17).

May God help us to understand, and understand clearly, that ingratitude is a sin! It bothers the heart of God and grieves Him when we do not have a thankful heart. How can we be so ungrateful when we have been the recipients of God's wonderful grace?

Dr. Criswell from the First Baptist Church in Dallas, TX, tells a story of a wretched woman he encountered on visitation in the first church he pastored. After the woman shared her pathetic life story, a story of tragedy and loss, desperation, poor health, and bitterness, she asked if she might share some of her poetry with Dr. Criswell before he left. He agreed to listen and this was the poem he heard.

I hate Oklahoma! Not the land of my native birth,

*But a land, by all the gods that be,
a scourge on the face of the earth.*

I hate Oklahoma!

*I hate Oklahoma! Where the centipede crawls
In your bed at night,
Where the rattlesnake lifts its fangs to bite,
Where the lizard and the scorpion play on the
sly,*

*And the lonesome vultures sail high in the sky.
Where water and food are an eternal lack,
And man's best friend sticks a dagger in his back.*

I HATE OKLAHOMA!

She offered him a whole sheath of poetry. It was all like that. Dr. Criswell said that he had never seen such an angry, bitter, ungrateful, unthankful woman. A few weeks after his visit, the woman died, and

GOSPEL WAY FREE WILL BAPTIST CHURCH HOSTS BENEFIT GOLF TOURNAMENT

September 24th was a great day for Southeastern. Gospel Way Free Will Baptist Church in Gastonia, NC, hosted a benefit golf tournament for our college. It was a tremendous day even though it rained a bit. But it really was a blessing to see ninety-six (96) golfers register to fellowship, play golf and help Southeastern.

Under the direction of Pastor Ronnie Bolin, the people of Gospel Way worked their way past their goal of $1,000. After the tournament, Pastor Bolin presented President Billy Bevan with a check for $2,241.

Once again, a local church with a burden for Southeastern Free Will Baptist College was used by the Lord to help us train young people!

THANK YOU, GOSPEL WAY FREE WILL BAPTIST CHURCH!!

before her death she had left word that she wanted Dr. Criswell to preach her funeral. Dr. Criswell said it was the most memorable funeral service that he had ever preached; for the only person who was at the service was the corpse in the casket. NOT ONE PERSON CAME...for you see, ingratitude has no friends.

Are you a thankful and grateful Christian or have you been living on "Grumbling Boulevard" and "Griping Plaza?"

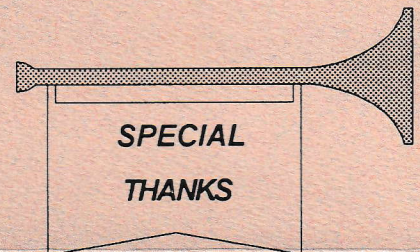

At this special season of the year when our hearts and minds are turned toward "thanksgiving" may each of us be filled with the grace of gratitude, not only in November, but every day of the year!

President Billy Bevan

Dear Friends of Southeastern,
Please allow us to relate this story:

Two neighboring farmers were talking one day and one asked how things had been going lately. The other farmer replied, "Not so well. My wife has been in the hospital and I have assumed the responsibility of taking care of our five children while continuing to take care of the farm. Our livestock barn burned down and I had to rebuild it. The tractor motor blew up last week and I had to rent one to finish harvesting the crops."

The first neighbor, looking very bewildered asked, "Why didn't you let us know about all of these problems? My wife and daughters would have visited with your wife at the hospital and helped with the kids and chores around the farm. My sons and I would have helped you rebuild the barn and you could have borrowed one of my two tractors. After all, that's what friends and neighbors are for."

"Well," replied the neighbor, "I certainly had lots of needs, but I really didn't want to bother you with my problems."

The moral of this story could be that while one farmer had many needs, the other could have helped meet those needs had he only known.

We would like to take this opportunity to make you aware of several needs at Southeastern FWB College. We encourage individuals, businesses and churches to raise money and/or to donate any of these items listed on the back as God may lay them on your heart. Perhaps some Sunday school classes could work together to take on some of the larger projects. In any case, please fill out the form on the back and send it in or call the college to inform us of your plans so we do not have any duplications. In addition, you might know of someone who may have one of these items for sale. Perhaps if you talk with them they might consider selling that item at a lower price to help the school.

Finally, we would ask that you prayerfully consider what God would have you do to help us meet these needs and to encourage others to get involved. Also, please be aware that gifts from individuals and businesses are considered charitable contributions and should be of assistance at tax times.

Please copy this material and distribute it to your neighbors and friends that may not have received this publication.

May we count on your help?

SOUTHEASTERN MISSIONS RECAP!

"LAUNCH OUT INTO THE DEEP" was the 1994 missions retreat theme. Great blessings, wonderful fellowship, good food and fantastic fun were all expressions we heard describing this annual event.

On September 16, 33 students packed into the vans and hit the road to beautiful Lake Waccamaw. We were joined there by missionary Clint Morgan from Ivory Coast, Africa. Brother Morgan shared with us the complexities of cross cultural ministries as well as the great blessing of winning people of other cultures to the Lord.

We all enjoyed the boating, swimming, skiing, basketball, skating and most of all the "moonlight boat ride."

The students came back refreshed and challenged from the Lord. They are ready to "launch out for Jesus!"

MISSIONS CONFERENCE UPDATE... "God challenged my heart tremendously." "Hearing the missionaries was both exciting and enlightening." "I know without any doubt that God wants me to be a foreign missionary." These are a few of the comments made by our students at the conclusion of our missions conference held October 20-21. Dale Bishop, Cliff Donoho, Doug King and Danny Dwyer did a great job preaching and many responded by kneeling at the altar to make life changing commitments.

If you did not get to attend, we have good news for you. Tapes are available of the whole conference, five tapes with the messages and one tape of our music all for $10. You can't beat that friend.

Will you pray for our students that they will all be challenged to get involved in reaching the world for Christ?

NEW STUDENT SAYS...

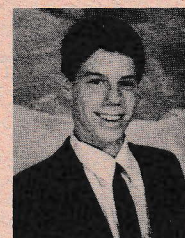

There are several reasons why I chose to attend

Southeastern. I had always wanted to go to college, but I was not able to afford it. Then, over the summer, the Ensemble visited my home church in Tampa, FL. As the Ensemble sang and performed, I sensed a closeness among them that I desired. After mailing in my application and praying about it, a man in my church offered to pay the tuition for my first semester if I was serious about attending Southeastern.

By God's grace I was accepted and I am beginning a new life.

Now that I am here, my life is completely different from what it was. A few of my classes are challenging, especially Church History, English, etc. However, even in classes my professors and I are becoming close. I am building lifelong relationships with guys in the dorm. Getting to know everyone is easy here. In all, college life is a new and exciting experience for me and I am looking forward to finishing my education here at Southeastern.
